Dear [Mr./Mrs./Ms.] [Hiring Manager's Name],

I was delighted to find out about the opening for [Position] at Discover Learning Academy on LinkedIn. As a current preschool teacher at the Goddard School in Colorado Springs, I am very familiar with private school systems and their intensive learning environments. Prior to the Goddard School, I also spent four years leading classes at Blue Lake Preschool in Carbondale. Noteworthy highlights from my teaching career thus far include:

- Receiving Teacher of the Month (April 2018) at the Goddard School
- Developing and coordinating successful field trips for students, with 95% positive feedback from parents
- Implementing a highly reviewed storytelling program that improved students' speech clarity by 24%

My additional qualifications include my certification in infant and child CPR as well as my musical talents, which I like to regularly incorporate in the classroom. I have always enjoyed engaging students through music and the arts, and have subsequently been praised for my creative instructional delivery.

I'd love to learn more about the opening at your school and look forward to the opportunity to speak with you further. If you have any questions about my experiences, please do not hesitate to contact me. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

On the High Wire George Theoharis, Sharon Dotger, 2015-02-01

The purpose of the work-life balance series is to highlight particular challenges that higher education faculty face as they participate in the demands of the academy and try to prevent those demands from invading their personal lives. On the High Wire looks at a specific subset of university faculty: education faculty with school-aged children. And the specific professional/personal balance these faculty need to find. The title On the High Wire suggests the precarious nature of the walk for education faculty who are parents of school-aged children. We know that our identities are central to how we experience the world and how the world reacts to us. This reality is clearly visible in this book. These multiple identities and roles come into conflict at multiple points and in different ways. This book explores these identities and roles through autoethnographic accounts written by varied education faculty in order to make these tensions visible for the field to address.
