Bioelectronic Nose Tai Hyun Park,2014-04-25 The bioelectronic nose the device which has a similar function to the human smell sensing system can be realized by combining the olfactory cells or receptors with nanotechnology In the last two decades much has been learned about the smell sensing mechanism in biological systems With knowledge about the biological olfactory system and the techniques for the expression of biological receptor proteins we are able to utilize biological materials and systems to mimic the biological olfactory system In addition to the advances in biological and biotechnological area nanotechnology has progressed to a great degree The bioelectronic nose is a good example of the integration of biotechnology and nanotechnology This book describes basic biological sciences of the olfactory system biotechnology for the production of olfactory biological elements and nanotechnology for the development of various sensing devices The purpose of this book is to provide the reader with a concept basic sciences fundamental technologies applications and perspectives of the bioelectronic nose Imhotep Today Jean-Marcel Humbert,2016-06-16 This book presents and analyses the results of the use and adaptation of ancient Egyptian architecture in modern times It traces the use of ancient Egyptian motifs and constructions across the world from Australia the Americas and Southern Africa to Western Europe It also inquires into the cultural economic and social contexts of this practice Imhotep Today is exceptional not only in its global coverage but in its analyses of thorny questions such as what was it about Ancient Egypt that inspired such Egyptianizing monuments and was it just one idea or several different ones which formed the basis of such activities The book also asks why only certain images such as obelisks and sphinxes were incorporated within the movement The contributors explore how these monuments fitted into the local architecture of the time and in this context they investigate whether Egyptianizing architecture is an ongoing movement and if so how it differs from earlier similar activities Flying Magazine ,2001-04
