Women and Sex Tourism Landscapes Erin Sanders-McDonagh, 2016-08-12 Sexual spaces normally inhabited by mostly female sex workers are understood as masculine spaces and positioned for and around male consumers However red light zones and public sex performances in both Thailand and Holland are being explored and visually consumed by female tourists in significant numbers Their presence in red light districts and sexual venues is at odds with the ways in which sexual spaces have normally been positioned Woman and Sex Tourism Landscapes explores female tourists' interactions with highly sexualized spaces and places in two very different contexts the Netherlands and Thailand Addressing this incongruence this text explores the ways in which these spaces are constructed and examines the different relations that govern the management of and female tourist interactions with these liminal sexual zones Ethnographic data collected in both countries suggests that far from being male centred spaces the red light districts and associated sexual entertainment venues are very much open to female tourists Drawing on this research the author argues that some women are indeed interested in exploring sexualized zones challenging assumptions about women's involvements with sexual space Thinking specifically about the visual nature of women's sexualized experiences the analysis draws on a range of different theoretical understandings that address power privilege and the gaze An important contribution to a range of debates this book will appeal to students and researchers in tourism geography sociology gender studies and cultural theory Michael's

Guides-Amsterdam Michael Schichor, 1988-03 Sex at the Margins Laura María Agustín, 2010-08-17 This groundbreaking book explodes several myths that selling sex is completely different from any other kind of work that migrants who sell sex are passive victims and that the multitude of people out to save them are without self interest Laura Agustín makes a passionate case against these stereotypes arguing that the label trafficked does not accurately describe migrants' lives and that the rescue industry disempowers them Based on extensive research amongst migrants who sell sex and social helpers Sex at the Margins provides a radically different analysis Frequently says Agustín migrants make rational choices to travel and work in the sex industry Although they are treated like a marginalised group they form part of the dynamic global economy Both powerful and controversial this book is essential reading for all those who want to understand the increasingly important relationship between sex markets migration and the desire for social justice

Tibballs, 2016-10-20. When we think of the world's great museums we tend to think of the Louvre, the Guggenheim, or the Victoria and Albert. We do not immediately think of the Dog Collar Museum, the Kansas Barbed Wire Museum, the Museum of Broken Relationships, or Barney Smith's Toilet Seat Art Museum. Yet scattered across the globe are museums dedicated to every conceivable subject, from bananas to Bigfoot lawnmowers to leprechauns, teapots to tapeworms, mustard to moist towelettes and pencils to penises. Many are serious collections housed in grand buildings; others are located in tiny premises and are open to visitors by appointment only, often the result of one person's crazy lifetime obsession. This book lists the world's 100 weirdest museums in order of quirkiness, encompassing such delights as The Museum of Witchcraft in Cornwall, a museum in Kentucky that houses 800 ventriloquist dolls, the Museum of Bad Art in Massachusetts, the Paris Sewer Museum, the French Fry Museum in Bruges, the Museum of Contraception and Abortion in Vienna, the Salt and Pepper Shaker Museum in Tennessee, Japan's Momofuku Ando Instant Ramen Museum (quite possibly the world's only museum devoted to instant noodles), and the Kunstkamera in St. Petersburg, home to Peter the Great's collection of oddities, including deformed fetuses and the decapitated head of a love rival preserved in vinegar. After all, what holiday is complete until you have seen a 300-year-old decapitated human head in a jar? Each entry will include address, contact, and admission details, so the next time you are in Berlin, there is no excuse for missing out on a visit to the Currywurst Museum, the world's leading museum dedicated to sausages in hot ketchup. The Rough Guide to Holland Martin Dunford, Jack Holland, Phil Lee, 2000. This handbook to Holland presents accounts of all there is to do and see. It includes reviews of where to stay, eat, and drink, from Amsterdam's designer bars to the small town cafes of provincial Holland. There is also a discussion of Holland's history, art, and literature.

Consolidated guidelines on HIV testing services, 2019 World Health Organization, 2018-11-07. Sex Work, Labour and Relations Teela Sanders, Kathryn McGarry, Paul Ryan, 2022-07-19. This edited collection showcases innovative up and coming researchers' work in the field of sex work studies across labour, work, and relationships. This research is pushing the boundaries of the subject, asking new questions, carving new methodological terrain, and contributing new ideas and empirical findings to the existing literature. Drawing on sociology, criminology, media studies, social and health policy, law, and socio-legal studies, the chapters reflect a range of new topics in the sex work studies literature, such as religious readings, porn workers, and their interactions with fans, romantic relationships, and humour at work. This book speaks to academics across the social sciences and humanities who are interested in sex work studies. The Philosophy of Sex Raja Halwani, Jacob M. Held, Natasha McKeever, Alan
