The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009      Kautilya and Non-Western

IR Theory Deepshikha Shahi, 2018-09-29 The ancient Indian text of Kautilya's Artha shastra comes forth as a valuable non Western resource for understanding contemporary International Relations IR. However Kautilya's Artha shastra largely suffers from the problem of presentism whereby present day assumptions of the dominant theoretical models of Classical Realism and Neorealism are read back into it thereby disrupting open reflections on Kautilya's Artha shastra which could retrieve its alternative assumptions and unconventional traits. This book attempts to enable Kautilya's Artha shastra to break free from the problem of presentism; it does so by juxtaposing the elements of continuity and change that showed up at different junctures of the life history of both Kautilya's Artha shastra and Eurocentric IR. The overall exploratory venture leads to a Kautilyan non Western eclectic theory of IR, a theory which moderately assimilates miscellaneous research traditions of Eurocentric IR and in addition delivers a few innovative features that could potentially uplift not only Indian IR but also Global IR.

Theorizing Internal Security in the European Union Raphael Bossong, Mark Rhinard, 2016-10-20 This edited volume offers different theories useful for understanding and explaining European Union cooperation on internal security matters. Cooperation on such matters has not only flourished over the past two decades but more recently has also become one of the most politicised or contested areas of European integration. Yet academic studies in the field remain predominantly empirical or not readily accessible to new scholars. The book addresses this major gap by providing a theoretical primer with a palette of options for explaining a complicated issue area reaching across the divide of critical and more mainstream scholars that typically fragments discussion and debate. Theorizing Internal Security Cooperation in the European Union offers accessible and authoritative contributions by some of the most distinguished scholars in the field. Each chapter reviews the emergence of a major theoretical approach, the current state of the art for that approach and the accompanying methodological considerations before providing an empirical illustration and an outlook on further research and dialogue with other perspectives. This book will serve as a central reference for developing our understanding of EU internal security cooperation for exploring the ongoing transformation of statehood and for illuminating the contemporary evolution of the European Union.

Fifty Major Political Thinkers Ian Adams, R. W. Dyson, 2003 The life and thought of major figures in Western political thought from ancient Greece to the present day. The entries provide an accessible and clearly written introduction to the major ideas and schools of thought which have shaped contemporary politics including figures such as Aristotle, Machiavelli, Jean Jacques Rousseau, Thomas Paine, Mary Wollstonecraft, Karl Marx, Mohandas Gandhi, Simone de Beauvoir, Michel Foucault and Jurgen Habermas.
