often seems to be a polarized debate is a broad spectrum of opinion around multiculturalism in Canada and what it means to be Canadian The Multiculturalism Question analyzes the policy ideology and message of multiculturalism Several of Canada's leading thinkers provide valuable insights into a crucial debate that will inevitably continue well into the future

Competing for the Internet Flip Petillion, Jan Janssen, 2017-03-15 The Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers ICANN founded in 1998 is a not for profit public benefit corporation established to ensure a stable and secure global Internet As the custodian of the Domain Name System DNS one of its key responsibilities is the introduction and promotion of competition in Internet related markets an aim which ICANN has tried to achieve through the delegation of generic top level domains gTLDs This book investigates how successful ICANN has been in achieving this goal Over the years ICANN has been required to decide on a substantial number of complaints from applicants for gTLDs related to capture arbitrariness discrimination and unwarranted restriction of competition This book is the first detailed study of complaints related to ICANN decisions that have been brought using ICANN's Independent Review Process IRP The authors preeminent expert practitioners in international litigation and arbitration related to Internet governance take a close look at how ICANN has handled the major issues raised and how ICANN has shaped its own accountability mechanisms The book also weighs the influence of external accountability on ICANN's decision making process and considers the implications of third party decisions such as IRP decisions for the ongoing development of the Internet This authoritative analysis covers the regulatory framework governing ICANN and the introduction of new gTLDs in a historic perspective ICANN's accountability framework all the IRP cases that have been decided to date with an in depth analysis of those cases that have become reference decisions in the latest application round and the 2016 amendments to ICANN's articles of incorporation and bylaws concentrating on the problems that remain unresolved This work is a welcome addition to the debate on how to address the shortcomings in ICANN's accountability in the interests of the global Internet community The authors make concrete proposals and recommendations suggesting changes to ICANN's regulatory framework in the light of the lessons learned and with a view to preventing similar problems arising in a next round of gTLD applications This book has the potential to become the Green Book for fundamental changes to ICANN's accountability framework

The Black Atlantic's triple burden Adekeye Adebajo, 2025-06-10 This volume demonstrates the continuities of five centuries of European slavery and colonialism in Africa the Caribbean and the Americas examining calls for reparations in all three regions for crimes against humanity Authored by eminent scholars largely based in these areas it contributes to transforming educational curricula globally This collection is a comprehensive multidisciplinary and enables cross regional comparisons to be drawn ensuring that important global events are read from diverse perspectives The volume is aimed at subject area experts as well as students in diverse areas of the humanities and beyond who seek a sound introductory reference book to these important historical subjects to which they are often not exposed The authors thus represent a multi disciplinary group encompassing diverse fields such as history international relations politics economics sociology anthropology literature and languages The book introduces readers to foreign language historical sources often inaccessible to an English speaking audience on these pivotal topics

Post-Liberal Peace Transitions Richmond Oliver P. Richmond, 2016-01-18 Why is it that states emerging from intervention peacebuilding and statebuilding over the last 25 years appear to be failed by design This study explores the interplay of local peace agency with the neo liberal peacebuilding project And it looks at how far can local peace formation dynamics can go to counteract the forces of violence and play a role in rebuilding the state consolidate peace processes and induce a more progressive form of politics By looking at local agency related to peace formation Oliver Richmond and Sandra Pogodda find answers to the pressing question of how large scale peacebuilding or statebuilding may be significantly improved and made more representative of the lives needs rights and ambitions of its subjects
