No Plan Neal Locke, 2010-02-22 The officers of the Delta shift for the Crest Police Department in central Oklahoma work the graveyard shift They work from 11 p.m. until 7 a.m. protecting the citizens of the City of Crest They do routine police work like answering calls for service traffic enforcement writing reports and anything that is needed of them to insure the safety and well being of the City of Crest A large shipment belonging to a criminal enterprise has been lost The Federal Bureau of Investigation has information about the shipment and they too have lost contact Local contacts and the criminal enterprise are looking hard for the shipment but four police officers of the Delta shift have already found it As this story progresses the suspense on what is going to happen next takes the medium sized City of Crest into an unfamiliar setting of drugs money murder good cops and bad cops

Managing Accountability Systems for Police Conduct Jeffrey J. Noble, Geoffrey P. Alpert, 2008-04-25 Police officers are invested with awesome powers and may use physical force to take a citizen into custody These powers help the police enforce laws and control suspects but they also have the potential to be abused The police must be responsive and accountable about crime and safety but they must also be responsive and accountable to the law and the rights of citizens Police abuse of power has a long and unfortunate history in the United States often because of the failure to develop meaningful procedures to ensure police accountability This book introduces the reader to a unit of the police department that has been secretive and lacking transparency despite being an integral part of policing for a number of years Noble and Alpert clearly explain the structure and function of internal affairs or professional compliance units and provide guidance for establishing an effective unit that will benefit both the police and the community One recent trend is to make internal affairs more proactive than reactive The authors provide comprehensive coverage of this trend's objectives
