Imagined Romes C. David Benson, 2019-05-10 This volume explores the conflicting representations of ancient Rome one of the most important European cities in the medieval imagination in late Middle English poetry Once the capital of a great pagan empire whose ruined monuments still inspired awe in the Middle Ages Rome the seat of the pope became a site of Christian pilgrimage owing to the fame of its early martyrs whose relics sanctified the city and whose help was sought by pilgrims to their shrines C David Benson analyzes the variety of ways that Rome and its citizens both pre Christian and Christian are presented in a range of Middle English poems from lesser known anonymous works to the poetry of Gower Chaucer Langland and Lydgate Benson discusses how these poets conceive of ancient Rome and its citizens especially the women of Rome as well as why this matters to their works An insightful and innovative study Imagined Romes addresses a crucial lacuna in the scholarship of Rome in the medieval imaginary and provides fresh perspectives on the work of four of the most prominent Middle English poets Authors of the Middle Ages. Volume I, Nos 1-4 David C. Fowler, J. A.

Burrow, 2016-12-05 Authors of the Middle Ages is a new series designed for research and reference Each part by an expert on the subject gives an account of the facts known about a particular Author s life and immediate historical context together with a review of subsequent scholarship This is supported by citation of all known contemporary references a dated and classified list of manuscripts and editions a bibliography of secondary sources and appendices listing or printing the key literary and documentary sources The aim is to combine in one compact work a bibliography of a medieval author with all the information needed for further research Each will be available individually or in a collection with three other contemporary Authors Authors of the Middle Ages is divided into two sub series English Writers of the Late Middle Ages and historical and Religious Writers of the Latin West Official Gazette.
