Fox, Nina K. Buchanan, 2017-05-01 The Wiley Handbook of School Choice presents a comprehensive collection of original essays addressing the wide range of alternatives to traditional public schools available in contemporary US society A comprehensive collection of the latest research findings on school choices in the US including charter schools magnet schools school vouchers home schooling private schools and virtual schools Viewpoints of both advocates and opponents of each school choice provide balanced examinations and opinions Perspectives drawn from both established researchers and practicing professionals in the U S and abroad and from across the educational spectrum gives a holistic outlook Includes thorough coverage of the history of traditional education in the US its current state and predictions for the future of each alternative school choice Cultures of Sustainable Peace Hyab Teklehaimanot Yohannes, Alison Phipps, Tawona Sitholé, 2024-12-10 This book shifts the focus of peacebuilding away from nation states and international organisations to make a powerful argument that sustainable peacebuilding is the work of ordinary people It brings together work done in Gaza Ghana Mexico Morocco and Zimbabwe alongside work with refugees in Scotland to argue for a place for successful intercultural relations as a central aim of peacebuilding moving beyond the more usual focus on economic development With a particular emphasis on addressing gender based violence and the role of women in peacebuilding together with a central role for arts and culture as a means of resistance and social change the chapters represent the fruit of collaborative work across geographical and cultural borders between artists activists and academics bringing a wide range of disciplinary perspectives to bear on situations of violence and precarity In a world where peace work can feel increasingly futile this book makes a powerful case for the crucial role of local action and cultural work and play in the creation of a better future The book will be open access under a CC BY ND licence Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ,1996

This Land Is Your Land Michael J. Lannoo,2018-08-10 Field biology is enjoying a resurgence due to several factors the most important being the realization that there is no ecology no conservation and no ecosystem restoration without an understanding of the basic relationships between species and their environments an understanding gleaned only through field based natural history With this resurgence modern field biologists find themselves asking fundamental existential questions such as Where did we come from What is our story Are we part of a larger legacy In This Land Is Your Land seasoned field biologist Michael J Lannoo answers these questions and more in a tale rooted in the people and institutions of the Midwest It is a story told from the ground up a rubber boot based natural history of field biology in America Lannoo illuminates characters such as John Wesley Powell William Temple Hornaday and Olaus and Adolph Murie homegrown midwestern field biologists who either headed east to populate major research centers or went west to conduct their fieldwork along the frontier From the pioneering work of Victor Shelford Henry Chandler Cowles and Aldo Leopold to contemporary insights from biologists such as Jim Furnish and historians such as William Cronon Lannoo s unearthing of American and particularly midwestern field biologists reveals how these scientists influenced American ecology conservation biology and restoration ecology and in turn drove global conservation efforts through environmental legislation and land set asides This Land Is Your Land reveals the little known legacy of midwestern field biologists whose ethos and discoveries have enabled us to preserve and understand not just their land but all lands The College Handbook for Transfer Students,

, The Spectator ,1928 History of A.E. Staley Manufacturing Co. Work with Soy (1867-2018) Bill Shurtleff; Akiko Aoyagi,2018-06-26 The world s most comprehensive well documented and well illustrated book on this subject With extensive subject and geographical index 108 photographs and illustrations many color Free of charge in digital PDF format on Google Books Forest Health and Biotechnology National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine,Division on Earth and Life Studies,Board on Agriculture and Natural Resources,Committee on the Potential for Biotechnology to Address Forest Health,2019-04-01 The American chestnut whitebark pine and several species of ash in the eastern United States are just a few of the North American tree species that have been functionally lost or are in jeopardy of being lost due to outbreaks of pathogens and insect pests New pressures in this century are putting even more trees at risk Expanded human mobility and global trade are providing pathways for the introduction of nonnative pests for which native tree species may lack resistance At the same time climate change is extending the geographic range of both native and nonnative pest species Biotechnology has the potential to help mitigate threats to North American forests from insects and pathogens through the introduction of pest resistant traits to forest trees However challenges remain the genetic mechanisms that underlie trees resistance to pests are poorly understood the complexity of tree genomes makes incorporating genetic changes a slow and difficult task and there is a lack of information on the effects of releasing new genotypes into the environment Forest Health and Biotechnology examines the potential use of biotechnology for mitigating threats to forest tree health and identifies the ecological economic and social implications of deploying biotechnology in forests This report also develops a research agenda to address knowledge gaps about the application of the technology Yearbook on International Investment Law & Policy, 2013-2014 Andrea K. Bjorklund,2015-07-31 International investment law today consists of a network of multifaceted multilayered international treaties that in one way or another involve virtually every country of the world. The evolution of this network raises a host of issues regarding international investment law and policy especially in the area of international investment disputes. The Yearbook on International Investment Law proportionality reasonableness and standards of review in investment treaty arbitration and the role of investors legitimate expectations in defense of investment treaty claims. The general articles included in this volume provide analysis of balancing investor protection and regulatory freedom in international investment law. The jurisprudential interaction between ICSID tribunals and the International Court of Justice are also discussed along with inconsistencies in investor state awards the role of state interpretations old and new ways for host states to defend against investment arbitrations and approaches and analogies in the countermeasures defense in investor state disputes. This volume explores the political economy of crises and the international law of necessity after the great recession. In addition to this are articles on unilateral treaty making and bilateral investment treaties investment promotion agencies the trend toward open contracting and new regulations on foreign acquisitions of land in Brazil and Argentina. This volume concludes with the winning memorials from the 2013 FDI International Moot Competition.

General International Law in International Investment Law, 2024-01-27. General international law is part and parcel of investor state arbitration. This is the case not only regarding treaty law and state responsibility but also with respect to matters such as state succession the international minimum standard and state immunity all of which feature regularly in investor state arbitration. Yet although general international law issues arise in almost every investment case and often require extensive research no systematic exploration of the relationship between the two exists. This Commentary is the first to fill this gap providing a comprehensive treatment of the role of general international law in international investment law. It engages in detail with central matters of general international law including in the practice of investment arbitration tribunals moving beyond existing works which focus solely on procedural and institutional provisions. The Commentary's forty six chapters do not focus on a single source or subject. Instead each concentrates on a specific relevant article from a particular source of public law such as the Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties 1969 or the International Law Commission's Articles on the Responsibility of States for Internationally Wrongful Acts 2001 among others. The entries combine detailed analysis with an examination of procedural and substantive aspects such as nationality and unjust enrichment and respond to the following questions: how have investment tribunals interpreted and applied the specific rule of general international law? To what extent and why does such interpretation and application align with or deviate from the practice by other international courts or tribunals? How could and should investment tribunals interpret and apply rules that have yet to feature in investment arbitration? This unique format means this commentary will serve as a central guide for all relevant case law and scholarship on international investment law.

Investment Protection Standards and the Rule of Law
August Reinisch, Stephan W. Schill, 2023. This edited volume explores the connection between the rule of law and substantive standards of treatment in international investment agreements It also analyses to what extent these standards of treatment can be understood as positive expressions of the rule of law Queering the Church Penelope Cowell Doe,2024-05-31 Church dialogues including official reports and debates within the General Synod operate under the premise that canonical authority can shape a viable theology and coherent ecclesiastical and liturgical practices In a groundbreaking departure from conventional methodologies Queering the Church offers a rigorous examination of the hermeneutical frameworks that inform discussions on homosexuality within ecclesiastical governance Drawing inspiration from Halberstam s concept of the queer art of failure Doe advocates for a fundamental shift a move away from entrenched institutionalized debates toward a more inclusive deconstructive discourse Rather than perpetuating cycles of authoritative rhetoric Doe proposes a transformative realignment one that challenges traditional power dynamics and fosters a more equitable theological dialogue Provocative and timely this book promises to illuminate new avenues toward a nuanced comprehension of church discourse Remote Sensing for Field-based Crop Phenotyping Jiangang Liu,Zhenjiang Zhou,Bo Li,2024-02-12 Dynamic monitoring of crop phenotypic traits e g LAI plant height biomass nitrogen yield et al is essential for exploring crop growth patterns breeding new varieties and determining optimized strategies for crop management Traditional methods for determining crop phenotypic traits are mainly based on field sampling handheld instrument measurement and mechanized high throughput platforms which are time consuming and have low efficiency and incomplete spatial coverage The development of crop science requires more rapid and accurate access to field based crop phenotypes Remote sensing provides a novel solution to quantify crop structural and functional traits in a timely rapid non invasive and efficient manner With the development of burgeoning remote sensing sensors and diversified algorithms a range of crop phenotypic traits have been determined including morphological parameters spectral and textural characteristics physiological traits and responses to abiotic biotic stresses in different environments In addition research advances in varying disciplines beyond agricultural sciences such as engineering computer science molecular biology and bioinformatics have brought new opportunities for further development of remote sensing based methods and technologies to gain more quantitative information on crop structure and function in complex environments Solid State Lighting Reliability Part 2 Willem Dirk van Driel,Xuejun Fan,Guo Qi Zhang,2017-07-11 In the past four years we have witnessed rapid development in technology and significant market penetration in many applications for LED systems New processes and new materials have been introduced new standards and new testing methods have been developed new driver control and sensing technologies have been integrated and new and unknown failure modes have also been presented In this book Solid State Lighting Reliability Part 2 we invited the experts from industry and academia to present the latest developments and findings in the LED system reliability arena Topics in this book cover the early failures and critical steps in LED manufacturing advances in reliability testing and standards quality of colour and colour stability degradation of optical materials and the associated chromaticity maintenance
