

Favorite holiday destination Essay

Cameron Highland, which is situated in the state of Pahang, is one of the most beautiful holiday destinations in Malaysia. With its cool weather, lushly greens and well-preserved colonial buildings, Cameron highland is certainly the perfect get-away location where both locals and foreigners should spend their relaxing holiday there.

In hindsight, from a small Hill station, Cameron Highland has developed into a very popular resort. Nowadays, the resorts on Cameron Highland are built not only for the residents of this country but also to woo overseas vacationers as well. Cameron Highland, which is famous for its cool and temperate climate plateau is an ideal alternative escape spot from the sweltering heat of the lowlands in Malaysia. Furthermore, with its picturesque view of the surrounding, which is filled with beautiful flowers and mountains, it's simply breathtaking.

biographical and topical introduction As the title suggests attention is directed on the one hand toward the material world which is viewed in its extreme spatial extensions of the universe and of the elementary particles In particular the fascinating notion of the void and its fluctuating energy is the subject of various discussions as is the subdivision of material bodies and its limits The latter as well as the limit of gravitational stability are depicted in a diagram leading to the ultimate point of the Planck mass and length The other topic of the title is the spiritual realm which as in the Introduction is based on reflections and quotations from religious texts This rather personal aspect is also apparent in the frequent mention of the author's teacher Wolfgang Pauli who on the psychological side is associated with C G Jung and Marie Louise von Franz and on the physical side with Albert Einstein and the author's colleague Ernest Stueckelberg

Kate O'Brien and the Fiction of Identity Aintzane Legarreta Mentxaka, 2014-01-10 Kate O'Brien's work is now widely considered canonical in the English language and the author herself an icon for Ireland seeking to reinvent itself O'Brien's novel Mary Lavelle banned upon publication in 1936 is a key work of the twentieth century that has suffered from critical neglect despite its wider popularity with readers This book reexamines Mary Lavelle exploring its role in the modernist canon and its importance to political and queer activism The novel's biographical and autobiographical experimentation is of particular note Through the lens of this crucial novel the oeuvre of Kate O'Brien is recontextualized and reassessed

It's an Amusement Park Thing Michael Burkes, 2017-05-31 This book is about having fun It's about enjoying a pastime and taking pictures which you may not have thought about before It's about searching for that particular angle and shot that will be remembered by you and will be yours always It's about having the patience and the knowledge to prepare to take a particular picture and the joy of the hunt to find that photo I hope that this book will inspire you to get out and learn your camera to the many possibilities of functions it offers to travel to your home amusement park as well as outside your realm to find that one particular photo that has an angle you did not see before whether it's a roller coaster spin ride pastoral scene or an architectural wonder and to beam and smile as you take photos during the dusk of morning late afternoon early evening and late at night This book will try to cover all those facets and more

Women Writing the Academy Gesa Kirsch, 1993-10-28 Women Writing the Academy is based on an extensive interview study by Gesa E Kirsch that investigates how women in different academic disciplines perceive and describe their experiences as writers in the university Kirsch's study focuses on the writing strategies of successful women writers their ways of establishing authority and the kinds of audiences they address in different disciplinary settings Based on multiple interviews with thirty-five women from five different disciplines anthropology education history nursing and psychology and four academic ranks seniors graduate students and faculty before and after tenure this is the first book to systematically explore the academic context in which women write and publish While there are many studies in literary criticism on women as writers of fiction there has not been parallel scholarship on women as writers of professional discourse be it inside or outside the academy Through her research for example Kirsch found that women were less likely than their male counterparts to think of their work as sufficiently significant to write up and submit for publication tended to hold on to their work longer than men before sending it out and were less likely than men to revise and resubmit manuscripts that had been initially rejected This book is significant in that it investigates a new area of research gender and writing and in doing so brings together findings on audience authority and gender Back To High School: A Book Of Essays Freelan Justice,2013-11 Back in high school my favorite class was English because I had a chance to write essays All of the essays contained in this book are new essays I ve thrown away all of the one s from high school but my hope is that either a I can help someone with essay writing who is IN high school or b I can do with someone like I did with myself while writing this and help them remember WHY they loved English class in high school so much My Favourite Things Gerhard Jaritz,Ingrid Matschinegg,2019 Research into material culture has become one of the most important fields in medieval and early modern studies While past research focused primarily on the objects as such present interests have moved to humans and their ties to things This volume concentrates on the perception of medieval and early modern material culture in particular exceptional objects that can be seen as favourite things Contributions lead from theoretical issues to specific groups of objects their exclusivity and function as social markers The analyses address both religious and secular space Phil's Favorite 500 Phil Berardelli,2015-08-10 Phil Berardelli has been in love with movies ever since his first encounter as a little boy thrilled him and then scared the daylights out of him In the intervening years including a six year stint as a TV movie critic Phil has seen at least 5 000 titles Here he has put together a list of his 500 favorites which he has separated into 50 categories He has accompanied each one with informative witty and often insightful capsule comments along with bits of trivia formatting descriptions and where available links to online trailers clips and full length versions Newly updated for 2014 and containing 24 new titles plus a new section of recommended books Phil s Favorite 500 encompasses everything Phil has learned in over half a century of moviegoing The list includes something for everyone adults couples children teens and families and covers some of the greatest movies ever made both in the U S and elsewhere as well as some of the cinema s most entertaining clunkers Many of his choices and omissions may surprise you But in all cases Phil makes compelling arguments for sampling these titles If you do sample them you might just find yourself adding many of them to your own list of favorites Sampled browsed or read from beginning to end Phil s Favorite 500 reflects a love of the medium that is contagious and his descriptions will help you view even the most familiar movies in a new and very entertaining way Teaching Writing as Journey, Not Destination P. L. Thomas,2019-01-01 American author Kurt Vonnegut has famously declared that writing is unteachable yet formal education persists in that task Teaching Writing as Journey Not Destination is the culmination of P L Thomas s experiences as both a writer and a teacher of writing reaching into the fourth decade of struggling with both This volume collects essays that examine the enduring and contemporary questions facing writing teachers including grammar instruction authentic practices in high stakes environments student choice citation and plagiarism the five paragraph essay
