Caribbean Masala Dave Ramsaran,Linden F. Lewis,2018-07-05 Winner of the 2019 Gordon K Sybil Lewis Book Award In 1833 the abolition of slavery in the British Empire led to the import of exploited South Asian indentured workers in the Caribbean under extreme oppression Dave Ramsaran and Linden F Lewis concentrate on the Indian descendants processes of mixing assimilating and adapting while trying desperately to hold on to that which marks a group of people as distinct In some ways the lived experience of the Indian community in Guyana and Trinidad represents a cultural contradiction of belonging and non belonging In other parts of the Caribbean people of Indian descent seem so absorbed by the more dominant African culture and through intermarriage that Indo Caribbean heritage seems less central In this collaboration based on focus groups in depth interviews and observation sociologists Ramsaran and Lewis lay out a context within which to develop a broader view of Indians in Guyana and Trinidad a numerical majority in both countries They address issues of race and ethnicity but move beyond these familiar aspects to track such factors as ritual gender family and daily life Ramsaran and Lewis gauge not only an unrelenting process of assimilative creolization on these descendants of India but also the resilience of this culture in the face of modernization and globalization The Pianomaker ,1951 GOD HAS HIS

Children's Friend ,1893 Rudolf Steiner Crispian Villeneuve,2011 Following his major work on Rudolf Steiner s ten visits to Britain Crispian Villeneuve studies Steiner s relationship to the British Isles during the approximately forty years before those visits The theme of Steiner s early connection to British culture leads inevitably to the broader topic of his relationship to modern science This in turn highlights the polarity and tension between the Goethean philosophic view that arises from Central Europe and the Baconian perspective emanating from Western Europe Interweaving these contrasting Baconian and Goethean worldviews Villeneuve presents numerous primary texts often culled from obscure sources and many previously unavailable in English with commentary on Rudolf Steiner and the nineteenth century We learn about Steiner's teachers Karl Julius Schröter and Edmund Reitlinger as well as English polymath William Whewell perhaps the greatest admirer of Francis Bacon in recorded history though he maintained numerous connections to Central Europe Crispian Villeneuve offers genuinely new and valuable research into the early life and thought of one of the greatest cultural innovators of our time
