My Status At Turfloop:

Turfloop a Conscious Pariah Kanyane Chris Kanyane,Chris Kanyane,2010 This book provides reflections on the butterfly effect on how Turfloop brought in the Age of Barack Obama What is the Age of Barack Obama To paraphrase Dr Ineke Van Kessel a prominent historian at the Leiden University in the Netherlands The University of the North also known as Turfloop played a vital role as the center of communication coordination ideological direction the engine of bringing the new South Africa was University of the North We approached this book like detectives Fortunately in our detective work we were not concerned with a particular agenda we were not trying to prove that a certain method of thinking was right or wrong We didn't want this book to be filled with personal opinions and biases We wanted this book to be juicy and accessible to every person who reads it in whatever corner of the world We have to back up our story with facts of course and get other people to do practical analysis and later we added our own perspectives When we completed writing this book we passed it around amongst critical people spread across the globe Most of them said that the book is somehow highbrow and at the same time all together lowbrow which came as a compliment A lot of people are somewhere in between We want this book to embody that because there are many people there we want them to appreciate this book

One Hundred Years of the ANC Arianna Lissoni, Jon Soske, 2012-11-01 An examination of the ANC in its centennial year On 8 January 2012 the African National Congress ANC of South Africa the oldest African nationalist organisation on the continent celebrated its one hundredth anniversary This historic event has generated significant public debate within both the ANC and South African society at large There is no better time to critically reflect on the ANC's historical trajectory and struggle against colonialism and apartheid than in its centennial year One Hundred Years of the ANC is a collection of new work by renowned South African and international scholars Covering a broad chronological and geographical spectrum and using a diverse range of sources the contributors build upon but also extend the historiography of the ANC by tapping into marginal spaces in ANC history By moving away from the celebratory mode that has characterised much of the contemporary discussions on the centenary the contributors suggest that the relationship between the histories of earlier struggles and the present needs to be rethought in more complex terms Collectively the book chapters challenge hegemonic narratives that have become an established part of South Africa's national discourse since 1994 By opening up debate around controversial or obscured aspects of the ANC's century long history One hundred years of the ANC sets out an agenda for future research The book is directed at a wide readership with an interest in understanding the historical roots of South Africa's current politics will find this volume informative This book is based on a selection of papers presented at the One Hundred Years of the ANC Debating Liberation Histories and Democracy Today Conference held at the University of Witwatersrand Johannesburg from 20-23 September 2011
