Thwallies,2017-02-21 The Journey of My Life is a story about ancestral spiritshow they can drive you your life and your path to your future A lot of people say that ancestral spirits are not real but in Africa if you dont follow what your forebears tell you you might ruin your life      Unisa English Studies University of South Africa. Incomplete Without My Brother, Adonis Kaizer Mabhilidi Nyatsumba,2014-07-22 We walked on a patch of grass that seemed to have been burnt a few hours earlier with soot covering our feet There in front of us lay my beloved brother Adonis lifeless his body facing up There were numerous stab wounds on his body including his face and his lumber jacket was half burnt Thus begins Kaizer Nyatsumba s tragic story of his twin brother s horrible murder It is also an intriguing look into aspects of South African life hitherto unknown to many They were twins of a special kind the closest of friends and each other s confidantes Their mothers were sisters they were inseparable when they grew up they were the first graduates in the extended family and were the ones the family depended on for leadership When Adonis was brutally murdered in the Pretoria area in June 2009 Kaizer was shattered and his life irrevocably changed A part of him died with Adonis and he has yet to come fully to terms with the loss A very private man the author bares his soul in this book      Corrupted Jonathan D

Jansen,2023-02 Through investigatory reports and interviews Jonathan Jansen reveals the structural conditions for chronic dysfunction in a sample of South African universities He reveals the political economy at work and the intense competition for resources on campuses He also provides interventions for these fragile institutions Why do some universities seem to be in a constant state of turmoil and dysfunction Jonathan Jansen explores the root causes of chronic instability in a sample of South African universities Through scrutiny of investigatory reports and interviews with more than 100 university managers and government officials Jansen finds that at the heart of the dysfunction in universities is an intense and sometimes deadly competition for resources especially on campuses located in impoverished communities It is not the lack of institutional resources but their concentration in a university that draws a mix of corrupt actors from local politicians and taxi operators to members of council and management into a never ending run on the material such as money for infrastructure and symbolic namely graduation certificates for sale assets of these institutions Jansen argues that the problem won t be solved through investments in capacity building alone because the combination of institutional capacity and institutional integrity contributes to serial instability in universities Jansen makes an important intervention to understanding the root causes and offers interventions to produce stabilities such as the depoliticisation of university councils and appointing academics of integrity and capacity in the management and leadership of these fragile institutions This groundbreaking and long overdue study will offer a promising way forward for universities to better serve their communities and the country more broadly

RA Romm,2018-04-21 This book explores ways in which creative research practice can be explicitly and mindfully geared to make a difference to the quality of social and ecological existence It offers a range of examples of how different research methods can be employed and re tuned with this intention The book suggests that what Romm names active research involves using the research space responsibly to open up new avenues for thinking and acting on the part of those involved in the inquiry and wider stakeholders The book includes a discussion of a range of epistemological ontological methodological and axiological positions or paradigms that can be embraced by inquirers implicitly or explicitly It details the contours of an epistemology where knowing is recognized to be grounded in social relations as a matter of ethics While focusing on discussing the transformative paradigm and attendant view of research ethics it considers to what extent the borders between paradigms can be treated as being permeable in creative and active inquiries Apart from considering options for enhancing responsible research practice during the process of inquiry and reconsidering mixed research designs the book also considers options for responsible theorizing that is inspirational for pursuing goals of social and ecological justice

Global Shakespeare and Social Injustice Chris Thurman,Sandra Young,2023-05-04 The chapters in this book constitute a timely response to an important moment for early modern cultural studies the academy has been called to attend to questions of social justice It requires a revision of the critical lexicon to be able to probe the relationship between Shakespeare studies and the intractable forms of social injustice that infuse cultural political and economic life This volume helps us to imagine what radical and transformative pedagogy theatre making and scholarship might look like The contributors both invoke and invert the paradigm of Global Shakespeare building on the vital contributions of this scholarly field over the past few decades but also suggesting ways in which it cannot quite accommodate the various global Shakespeares presented in these pages A focus on social justice and on the many forms of social injustice that demand our attention leads to a consideration of the North South constructions that have tended to shape Global Shakespeare conceptually in the same way the material histories of North and South have shaped global injustice as we recognise it today Such a focus invites us to consider the creative ways in which Shakespeare s imagination has been taken up by theatre makers and scholars alike and marshalled in pursuit of a more just world African Philosophy and Environmental Conservation Jonathan Chimakonam,2017-10-04 African Philosophy and Environmental Conservation is about the unconcern for and marginalisation of the environment in African philosophy The issue of the environment is still very much neglected by governments corporate bodies academics and specifically philosophers in the sub Saharan Africa The entrenched traditional world views which give a place of privilege to one thing over the other as for example men over women is the same attitude that privileges humans over the environment This culturally embedded orientation makes it difficult for stake holders in Africa to identify and confront the modern day challenges posed by the neglect of the environment In a continent where deep rooted cultural and religious practices as well as widespread ignorance determine human conduct towards the environment it becomes difficult to curtail much less overcome the threats to our environment It shows that to a large extent the African cultural privileging of men over women and of humans over the environment somewhat exacerbates and makes the environmental crisis on the continent intractable For example it raises the challenging puzzle as to why women in Africa are the ones to plant the trees and men are the ones to fell them Contributors address these salient issues from both theoretical and practical perspectives demonstrating what African philosophy could do to ameliorate the marginalisation which the theme of environment suffers on the continent Philosophy is supposed to teach us how to lead the good life in all its forms why is it failing in this duty in Africa specifically where the issue of environment is concerned This book which trail blazes the field of African Philosophy and Environmental Ethics will be of great interest to students and scholars of Philosophy African philosophy Environmental Ethics and Gender Studies     Breaking the Silence Esther Ng,Ken Rigby,2010     ECRM 2012 Proceedings of the 11th European Conference on Research Methods Rachel McClean,2012     ECRM2012- 9th European Conference on Research Methods in Business Management Rachel McClean,2010     The Mobile Learning Voyage - From Small Ripples to Massive Open Waters Tom H. Brown,Herman J. van der Merwe,2015-10-14 This book constitutes the proceedings of the 14th International Conference on Mobile and Contextual Learning mLearn 2015 held in a cruise ship leaving from and arriving to Venice Italy in October 2015 The 22 revised full papers and 6 short papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 81 submissions The papers deal with the topics related to the theme of the conference The mobile learning voyage from small ripples to massive open waters The conference theme paid tribute to the developments that brought mobile learning from its infancy steps in the early 2000s to maturity in 2015 while simultaneously paving the way for the broad and open waters ahead with new developments and progress in mobile learning and emerging ambient technologies     Vegetal Entwinements in Philosophy and Art Giovanni Aloï,Michael Marder,2023-07-04 The first reader in critical plant studies exploring a rapidly growing multidisciplinary field the intersection of philosophy with plant science and the visual arts In recent years philosophy and art have testified to how anthropocentrism has culturally impoverished our world leading to the wide destruction of habitats and ecosystems In this book Giovanni Aloï and Michael Marder show that the field of critical plant studies can make an important contribution offering a slew of possibilities for scientific research local traditions Indigenous knowledge history geography anthropology philosophy and aesthetics to intersect inform one another and lead interdisciplinary and transcultural dialogues Vegetal Entwinements in Philosophy and Art considers such topics as the presence of plants in the history of philosophy the shifting status of plants in various traditions what it means to make art with growing life forms and whether or not plants have moral standing In an experimental vegetal arrangement the reader presents some of the most influential writing on plants philosophy and the arts together with provocative new contributions as well as interviews with groundbreaking contemporary artists whose work has greatly enhanced our appreciation of vegetal being Contributors Catriona A H
