Women, Violence and Postmillennial Romance Fiction Emma Roche,2023-04-21 This book interrogates the significance of the revival and reformulation of the romance genre in the postmillennial period Emma Roche examines how six popular novels published between 2005 and 2015 Twilight Fifty Shades of Grey Gone Girl Sharp Objects and The Girl on the Train reanimate and modify recognisable tropes from the romance genre to reflect a neoliberal and postfeminist cultural climate As such Roche argues these novels function as crucial spaces for interrogating and challenging those contemporary gender ideologies Throughout the book Roche addresses and critiques several key attributes of neoliberal postfeminism including a pervasive emphasis on individualism and personal responsibility an insistent requirement for self monitoring self surveillance and bodywork the celebration of consumerism and its associated pleasures the prescription of mandatory optimism and suppressing one s negative emotions and the endorsement of choice as a primary marker of women s empowerment While much critical attention has been devoted to those attributes and their pernicious effects Roche argues that one crucial repercussion has been largely overlooked in contemporary cultural criticism how these ideologies function together to effectively sanction gender based violence Thus Roche exploits textual analysis to demonstrate the subtle ways in which neoliberal postfeminism can augment women s vulnerability to male violence The Secret Sauce Is YOU!-Being Your 'Ownmate' Swati Sharma,2021-02-08 About The Book The Law of gravity is an inescapable truth of the universe Sometimes tectonic shifts happen lightning strikes earth shatters and we fall flat on our face at rock bottom We find ourselves engulfed in darkness silence and solitude Finding this to be a perfect breeding ground our opportunistic demons

Representing Kink Sara K. Howe, Susan E. Cook, 2019-09-06 Representing Kink raises awareness about non normative texts and non normative erotic practices and desires It defines kink broadly encompassing a range of inappropriate texts and understanding it in frequent reference to non normative erotic fantasies and experiences Kink is treated as both a set of practices as well as a category of texts at the nexus of subject and form In addition to canonical texts that take up erotic and marginalized themes the collection also studies forms that are themselves fringe and feature kink taboo literature self published erotica SM narratives fan fiction role playing games and other disavowed texts The purpose of this study is to focus attention on the margins of an already marginalized subject in order to highlight the extent to which non normative textuality and eroticism both shape and are shaped by culture and context It sheds light on a category of subjects that is at once mainstream in the form of texts such as Fifty Shades of Grey and yet nevertheless repeatedly disparaged and undertheorized This book advocates for conversations about kinky texts that transcend dichotomous frameworks of good and bad and normal and deviant thinking instead in new theoretically rigorous and flexible directions If You Lean In, Will Men Just Look Down Your Blouse? Gina Barreca, 2025-06-25 Gina Barreca is fed up with women who lean in but don't open their mouths In her latest collection of essays she turns her attention to subjects like bondage which she notes now seems to come in fifty shades of grey and has been renamed Spanx She muses on those lessons learned in Kindergarten that every woman must unlearn like not having to hold the hand of the person you're waking next to especially if he's a bad boyfriend or needing to have milk cookies and a nap every day at 3:00 PM which tends to sap one's energy not to mention what it does to one's waistline She sounds off about all those things a woman hates to hear from a man like Calm down or Next time try buying shoes that fit If You Lean In Will Men Just Look Down Your Blouse is about getting loud getting love getting ahead and getting the first draw or the last shot Here are tips lessons and bold confessions about bad boyfriends at any age about friends we love and ones we can't stand anymore about waist size and wasted time about panic placebos placentas and certain kinds of not so adorable paternalism attached to certain kinds of politicians The world is kept lively by loud women talking and If You Lean In Will Men Just Look Down Your Blouse cheers and challenges those voices to come together and speak up You think she's kidding Oh boy do you have another thing coming
