Bob Leszczak, 2014-08-23 Inspired by the real life post divorce experiences of television comedy writer Danny Simon The Odd Couple has touched multiple generations of fans Playwright Neil Simon embellished his brother Danny's pseudo sitcom situation and created an oil and water twosome with memorable characters showcasing the foibles of mankind The original Broadway production enjoyed a run of 964 performances The story of the cohabitation of Felix Ungar and Oscar Madison translated extremely well to the silver screen and then in 1970 to television where it brought weekly laughs and mirth to an even larger audience for five seasons in prime time This thorough history details The Odd Couple in all its forms over the decades It provides capsule biographies of the stage film and television casts and crew as well as an episode guide and a wealth of little known information A Collector's Guide to TV Memorabilia Anthony Slide, 1985 Private Screenings Lynn Spigel, Denise Mann, 1992 While much research into television has been historical textual or empirical this volume approaches the topic from a sociocultural and feminist perspective to address important questions from the viewpoint of the audience as well as from that of the industry The contributors examine the ways in which the television industry seeks to deliver a female audience to its advertisers while inserting itself into women's lives both at home and in the marketplace hence the concept of a private screening in which the outside media world is brought into the personal space The volume analyzes how television delivers consumption to its female audience by displaying commodities and lifestyles that attempt to engender an idealized sense of community and how audiences understand television programming and how these programs construct definitions of femininity Television Introductions Vincent Terrace, 2013-11-07 Since the beginning of network television many shows have been preceded by an announcement or theme song that served various purposes In the 1950s and 60s it was common for announcers to declare that a program had been brought to you by a sponsor who paid for the privilege of introducing a show Other programs such as The Twilight Zone Star Trek and The Odd Couple provided a brief encapsulation of the show's subject matter a practice that has continued for recent shows like Alias Battlestar Galactica Person of Interest and the various editions of Law Order In Television Introductions Narrated TV Program Openings since 1949 Vincent Terrace has assembled openings for more than nine hundred television shows from the past seven decades The only documented history of narrated television program introductions this volume is arranged by type of programming such as comedy drama Western game show soap opera and children's show In addition to quoting the opening material entries provide information about each show's network history and years of broadcast Many entries include descriptions of the show the names of announcers and a list of main cast members as well as a sponsor pitch exactly as spoken Openings for programs with multiple introductions like The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet and Charlie's Angels are also included For programs that featured new guest stars every episode such as game shows and variety programs Terrace has selected a representative introduction In addition to the theme song credits found in the main text there are also appendixes of theme songs and their composers and or singers as well as a listing of commercial releases on DVD VHS CD and LP of shows and their soundtracks
