Workers (4th Ed.) Kenneth France, Kim Weikel, 2019-09-23 This updated and expanded fourth edition continues the theme of the previous edition emphasizing the current supporting research towards the building of relationships and encouraging productive change between human service workers and their clients. The text arranged the chapters in the following manner: Chapter 1 discusses several basic issues regarding the development and use of helping skills; Chapter 2 explores common modes of response; Chapter 3 encounters several ingredients that foster positive relationships; Chapter 4 presents a step by step approach to problem solving; Chapter 5 examines responses that can detract from efforts made; Chapter 6 presents a straightforward approach to establishing goals, objectives, and plans; Chapter 7 describes channels of nonverbal information and commonly encountered nonverbal messages; Chapter 8 highlights endeavors that take center stage before, during, and after scheduled appointments; Chapter 9 considers the needs of several groups such as children and older persons, clients having low socioeconomic status, individuals experiencing psychosis, and longstanding issues, and other individuals. New and supporting research for the following topics are included: the helping alliance, client feedback, communication self-efficacy, and stress in helping skills; students responding to negative feelings; methods for implementing plans; person-centered decision making that is required by law under the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act for certain older and disabled individuals; gender, cultural heritage, and ethnicity. In addition, there are multiple choice questions as well as short answer and fill-in-the-response items. Two complete client interviews are included which will illustrate the value of the skills demonstrated with the person being interviewed. The text is further enhanced by an appendix offering numerous tools such as exercises and forms. This informative book is designed for human resource professionals, counselors, social workers, and other related helping professionals.

CRISIS INTERVENTION Kenneth France, 2015-07-01 In this exceptional new sixth edition, the author has retained the practical framework for offering immediate problem-solving assistance to persons in crisis. Therefore, the goal of this updated and expanded edition is to provide knowledge and methods applicable to particular crisis circumstances. Specific topics include core concepts that are fundamental to all intervention efforts: crisis theory and the philosophy of crisis intervention; basic communication and problem-solving skills; suicide prevention; assistance for terminally ill persons; bereavement counseling; intervention with crime victims; rape counseling; negotiating with armed perpetrators; group strategies; family and marital interventions; disaster relief; case management; physical facilities; modes of contact; community relations; selection, training, and burnout prevention procedures. The handbook also details a review of the research on crisis intervention and how individual intervenors can build upon that knowledge. Numerous case examples presented in the handbook with fictitious names are based on actual occurrences the author has encountered. The techniques in this book are applicable to crisis centers, hotlines, Internet-based services, victim assistance programs, college counseling centers, hospitals, schools, correctional facilities, children and youth programs, and other human service settings. The Study Questions at the end of each chapter are designed to serve as useful applications of crisis intervention theories and principles.

Intended for caregivers whose work involves crisis intervention efforts this is an informative resource for counselors social workers psychologists nurses physicians clergy correctional officers parole and probation officers and lay volunteers
