passages and their contexts Rather than selecting only certain portions of the New Testament to write about Fr Charles has written a devotional for each and every passage of the New Testament Fr Charles writes for the whole person he is not afraid to use his sense of humor and he carefully relates the Bible not only to the individual's life but also to the life of the church At the end of each day's devotional an appropriate prayer is offered as well as Points for Further Reflection on the day's lesson Each devotional concludes with a suggested resolution to put into effect what the Spirit has stirred up in the heart of the reader during the course of his reading meditation and prayer

Reflections of God's Work Paul McLean, 2010-08-23 This work by Paul McLean is a deep weekly devotional that is both introspective and interactive It is a weekly study as opposed to a daily reading in order to involve the reader on a more contemplative journey into focused biblical issues By use of a weekly instead of a daily study this devotional allows an opportunity to go deeper with God by narrowing the reader's focus on particular biblical principles that impact his or her personal sphere McLean vigorously maintains that Bible study deep personal analysis and prayer are critical anchors in weathering any of life's storms while at the same time producing Christian growth and maturity They are also the pillars from which growth life balance and fulfillment are achieved This book is interactive through the use of journaling thoughts impressions and messages received through connecting with God's word Bible during the week Essentially the reader evaluates his or her life by answering in journalistic form pointed and personal life questions McLean believes that prayer and contemplative study play critical roles in the process of hearing from God This devotional can also be used as a study guide for group sharing and personal growth Each chapter touches on insights and personal experiences McLean has encountered in his work as a probation officer and from his involvement in prison ministry He discovered that by witnessing the transforming power of Jesus Christ in the lives of criminal offenders he was changed and shaped by God for a higher purpose

Review ,1917      The Methodist Review ,1917      INTENTIONAL CHRISTIAN; 31 Day Devotional for God Seekers Jennifer Miller,2017-06-21 As Christians we are so multifaceted in who God created us to be and in all He created us to do No matter where we are in the world the color of our skin or the varying issues and character makeup of our individual lives We have one common desire and that is to be steadfast in our devotion to God By intentionally setting aside quality devotional time to commune with him we can be steadfast inwardly and outwardly in response to everyday life and situations The more we look into the lives of the men and women of the Bible we observe how intentional their relationship with God was By how they cultivated a private devotional life with him then God used them to display His glory publicly Through ridicule flesh issues rejection by family and friends poverty war death the hardships of life and many more things they practiced the importance of cultivating an intimate relationship with God in private was essential to their existence and as their necessity They practice intentionality with God by spending quality time with Him in spite of the everyday responsibilities of life This is where the inspiration for this devotional Intentional Christian is derived from Jesus being our chief example showed us His children that we have to intentionally cultivate a private devotional life with him He made an intentional and deliberate decision to cultivate an intimate relationship with his Father through devotional time spent in private when no one was looking while being in his secret place It is from these intimate moments Jesus spent with his Father he was always empowered prepared and lived life victoriously every day staying spiritually and physically in tune and connected to do the will of God even in dying on the cross for the sins of the world For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life Luke 5 16 However he made a practice of withdrawing to remote places in order to pray
