Mama Beck's Recession Proof Cooking Becky Handsaker,2009-11-19 Growing up in the midwest there were many times when our meals consisted of what wild game my pa brought home and ground beef Which meant my mom had to become creative in preparing our meals After all Ground beef can get pretty boring and we had be to careful with our budget Much like many of us are doing again This collection of recipes partially come from my childhood and part from having to get creative in order to get my son to eat All the recipes are quick easy and most are inexpensive to make but they all look and taste like a million dollars There are things listed in my book that are included to make life a little easier My son is disabled and when he was younger I needed simple and easy These non traditional recipes are for pampering and some are just suggestions to help save money around the house One example is to take a piece of fruit cut it into sections and serve it with dinner This adds color to the plate making it more appealing to the eye and is giving our bodies nutrition as well as it helps make a bag of fruit last a little longer Like said it is not that I have reinvented the wheel I just have some ideas that help keep my budget under control and ensure that my family ends up with full tummies a clean house and yes a little pampering

Pittsburgh in Your Pot Joanne Niehl,2024-12-23 Pittsburgh in Your Pot is the second cookbook in my Pittsburgh journey of food and of the city I love It is filled with over 180 recipes and stories that define the city its people and its culture Pittsburgh is a city founded and formed by hardworking immigrant families It is a city that is proud to say that all people were and are always welcome As the city evolved over the past several hundred years so did its cuisine The ethnic food brought to Pittsburgh became a part of who we are It defines our lives celebrates our family times and honors our traditions As in my first book Pittsburgh on Your Plate these recipes have been handed down from generation to generation and gathered over the years from my family my husband s family and many close friends Most were written in worn notebooks and on recipe cards or scraps of paper stuck in cookbooks all kept so dear Many of the recipes were from my mom my grandma Mary who was a numbers running bookie and packed pickles in a pickle factory and her sister my great aunt Julie Zia Zia Pittsburgh in Your Pot includes a very special section dedicated to our grandmas and their stories and recipes It

A. Franklin "Dub", 2009-02 WAFranklin was born august 2nd 1930 in Abilene Texas The Great Depression was just in its infancy and about all the memories the people had were about thee Roaring Twenties and Bath Tub Gin What they invisioned ahead were Hard Times and Empty Bellies In the fall of 1933 the family moved to California They lovate in Tulare County in about the middle of the San Joaquin Valley There first home was an abandonded one room Coke shack and all they had to eat were wild mustard greens and skillet corn bread cooked over a camp fire Their next home was in an abandoned chicken farm in the feed storage room W A was introduced to the cotten field when he turned 4 years old Some one in the legislature of California liked children because a bill was passed that stated when you turn 5 you go to school and to make sure the Turant Officer was born to existence to makee sure the aboved happened When he turned 5 he had moved to the town of Lindsay into an abandoned grocery store One day he and his Dad went across the street to get some ice from the ice house and he purposely kicked a dirty old rag that uncovered a hand full of coins He showed what he had found to his Dad and saw it quickly dissapear in his pocket Their was more money there than a days wages and would help a lot April 7th 1952 W A married his wife Helen and together they had three children and they gave them 8 grand children He retired from the Post Office and decided to write his stories and recipes The stories aree all true and have not been embellished or added too

On Food David Schildberger, 2023-06-19 Free thinking unconstrained by facts The book is based on the thesis that we live in a world of abundance full of natural riches and cultural artifacts full of human intellect and powerful technologies Our thinking however is dominated by the opposite the notion of scarcity The limits of nature act as an inevitable necessity In his book David Schildberger adopts a novel approach to the subject of resources with the help of intelligent instruments that introduce new foods such as chocolate made from cocoa cell cultures and even a fruit bearing vine raised far from a vineyard With his imagined scenarios the author invites the reader to dare stretch their intellectual imaginations and ultimately presents nature as a contingent Conceptual models on the subject of nature and alternative ways of producing food
