Gordon,Ann B. Dobie,1990 Time To Know Them Marilyn S. Sternglass,2017-09-25 In a time of declining resources in institutions of higher education we grapple with how priorities are to be set for the limited resources available Most vulnerable are those students labeled underprepared by colleges and universities Should we argue that the limited resources available ought to be used to support these students through their undergraduate years And if we decide that we want to do that what evidence of their potential for success can we provide that will justify the use of these resources Through longitudinal research that follows students who have been so labeled over all their college years we can begin to find answers to these questions Time to Know Them is the first book that follows the experiences of a group of students over their entire academic experience No previous studies have brought together the factors incorporated in this study examining writing and learning on a true longitudinal basis studying a multicultural urban population investigating the relationship between writing and learning by examining papers written over time for regularly assigned academic courses across a range of disciplines and taking into consideration non academic factors that influence academic performance such as race gender socio economic status and ideological orientation Through interviews twice a semester over six years the collection of papers written for all courses observations of instructional settings and analysis of required institutional tests of writing the author has been able to pull together a more complete picture of writing and intellectual development over the college years than has previously been available in any study Students are seen to acquire the ability to handle more complex reasoning tasks as they find themselves in more challenging intellectual settings and where risk taking and exploration of new ideas are valued The integration of students previous life experiences into their academic studies allows them to analyze critique modify and apply their previously held world views to their new learning These changes are seen to occur over time with instructional settings and support providing key roles in writing development Personal factors in students lives present difficulties that require persistence and dedication to overcome Never before have the complexities of real individual lives as they affect academic performance been so clearly presented

Language Policy and Planning in Universities Anthony J. Liddicoat, 2018-10-18 In a world where higher education is increasingly internationalised questions of language use and multilingualism are central to the ways in which universities function in teaching research and administration Contemporary universities find themselves in complex linguistic environments that may include national level language policies local linguistic diversity an internationalised student body increasing international collaboration in research and increased demand for the use and learning of international languages especially English The book presents a critical analysis of how universities are responding these complexities in different contexts around the world The contributions show that language issues in universities are complex and often contested as universities try to negotiate the national and the international in their work In some contexts universities language policies and the ways in which they are implemented may have a negative impact on their ways of working In other contexts however universities have embraced multilingualism in ways that have opened up new academic possibilities for staff and students Collectively the chapters show that universities language policy and planning are a work in progress and that much further work is needed for universities to achieve their language goals This book was originally published as a special issue of Current Issues in Language Planning Geolinguistics ,1986 Resources in Education ,1997 Alternatives to Grading Student Writing Stephen Tchudi,1997 The result of an investigation into the grading writing by the National Council of Teachers of English Committee on Alternatives to Grading Student Writing this collection of essays offers the writing teacher several innovative and interesting options Following an introduction by the editor chair of the Committee in which he delineates the field of possibilities the essays and their authors are as follows 1 It s Broken Fix It Liesel K O Hagan 2 Growth Biased Assessing of Writers A More Democratic Choice Marie Wilson Nelson 3 Writing Students Need Coaches Not Judges Lynn Holaday 4 Response A Promising Beginning for Learning to Grade Student Writing Carol Beeghly Bencich 5 Can You Be Black and Write and Right Elaine B Richardson 6 Alternative Assessment of Second Language Writing A Developmental Model Janis Massa 7 Scribliolink Inviting Parents To Respond to Their Children s Writing Joyce C Fine 8 Student Attitudes toward Grades and Evaluation on Writing Jean S Ketter and Judith W Hunter 9 Writing at Reading How a Junior Year in England Changes Student Writers Mary B Guthrow 10 Assessment through Collaborative Critique Sarah Robbins and others 11 What Grades Do for Us and How To Do without Them Marcy Bauman 12 Seeing How Good We Can Get It Kelly Chandler and Amy Muentener 13 Grading on Merit and Achievement Where Quality Meets Quantity Stephen Adkison and Stephen Tchudi 14 Total Quality A Farewell to Grades Charles McDonnell 15 Using a Multidimensional Scoring Guide A Win Win Situation Gail M Young 16 Students Using Evaluation in Their Writing Process Jacob S Blumner and Francis Fritz 17 Unlocking Outcome Based Education through the Writing Process Rick Pribyl 18 Portfolio Assessment as an Alternative to Grading Student Writing Kathleen Jones and 19 Issues To Consider When Scoring Student Portfolios Anne Wescott Dodd Faculty workshops in alternatives to grading student writing were Developing Intrinsic Motivation for Students Writing Immaculate Kizza Weighing and Choosing Alternatives Stephen Tchudi Contract Grades An Agreement between Students and Their Teachers Lynda S Radican and Using Rubrics and Holistic Scoring of Writing Jean S Ketter Alternative Assessment Methods across the Disciplines Pamela B Childers and Communicating with Parents and the Public Marilyn M Cooper Individual chapters contain references NKA ADE Bulletin Association of Departments of English,1985 The Publishers Weekly ,1999 WPA, Writing Program Administration ,1989 Educational Research Quarterly ,1984 Basic Writing in America Nicole Pepinster Greene,Patricia J. McAlexander,2008 Basic Writing in America published three decades after Mina Shaughnessy s Errors and Expectations presents the kind of educational stories envisioned by The City University of New York s Patricia Laurence Each of these stories has its own unique setting conflict and outcome Yet together they give a powerful and dramatic portrait of basic writing in four year colleges and universities across the country In the Introduction the editors argue that basic writing programs involved a new concept of writing remediation Receiving impetus from the American civil rights movement these programs defined postsecondary education not in terms of an investment for society but as an individual right Indeed a major purpose of basic writing was to facilitate the integration of underrepresented groups into America s colleges and universities The chapters describe the often hostile responses to basic writing and its students the low status of basic writing programs within English departments and universities clashes within the basic writing field itself pedagogical developments in composition as applied to basic writing and the professionalization of basic writing faculty They also show as years pass the raising of college admission standards the elimination or downsizing of basic writing programs and the channeling of less qualified students to two year colleges But in a number of institutions there are also innovations and successes including the emergence of a new type of basic writing program one that is more integrated with the college or university and that offers learning support to a wider range of students
