Guns in America Donald J. Campbell, 2021-08-09 This work provides readers with an authoritative resource for understanding the true extent and nature of gun violence in America examining the veracity of claims and counterclaims about mass shootings gun laws and public attitudes about gun control This work is part of a series that uses evidence based documentation to examine the veracity of claims and beliefs about high profile issues in American culture and politics Each book in the Contemporary Debates series is intended to puncture rather than perpetuate myths that diminish our understanding of important policies and positions to provide needed context for misleading statements and claims and to confirm the factual accuracy of other assertions This particular volume examines beliefs claims and myths about gun violence gun laws and gun rights in the United States Issues covered in the book include trends in firearm violence mass shootings the impact of gun ownership on rates and types of crime regulations and Supreme Court decisions regarding gun control and the Second Amendment and the activities and influence of organizations ranging from the National Rifle Association to Everytown for Gun Safety All of these topics are examined in individualized entries with objective responses grounded in up to date evidence Smarter Crime Control Irvin

Waller,2013-12-05 The U S is the world s biggest jailor and one of the most affluent murderous countries and yet its citizens pay more taxes to sustain law and order than their European counterparts Yet the U S has the most data in the world on the use of incarceration and its failure Its researchers have identified more projects able to prevent violence than the rest of the world put together Its legislators have access to pioneering data banks on cost effective ways to use taxes to reduce crime We are left wondering why we cannot implement measures that we know will work reduce crime and cost less for law and order Smarter Crime Control shows how to use recent knowledge and best practices to reduce the extraordinarily high rates of murder traffic fatalities drug overdoses and incarceration while avoiding the high taxes paid by families for policing and prisons Providing detailed examples Irvin Waller offers specific actions our leaders at all levels can take to reduce violence and lower costs to taxpayers He focuses on how to retool policing and improve corrections to reduce reoffending and crime while limiting criminal courts He also shows how programs and investments in various strategies can help those youth on the path to chronic offending avoid the path all together Waller shows how to get smart on crime to shift the criminal justice paradigm from the failing outdated racially biased and exorbitant complex today to an effective modern fair and lean system for safer communities that spares so many victims from the loss and pain of preventable violence He makes a compelling case for reinvesting what is currently misspent on reacting to crime into smart ways to prevent crime Ultimately he demonstrates to readers the importance of reevaluating our current system and putting into place proven strategies for crime and violence prevention that will keep people out of jail and make our streets and communities safer for everyone

Small Arms Survey 2008 Small Arms Survey,Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies (Geneva, Switzerland),2008-07-31 The Small Arms Survey 2008 examines the problem of diversion and analyses the public health approach to armed violence Global Burden of Armed Violence 2015 Geneva Declaration Secretariat,2015-04-16 The 2015 edition of the Global Burden of Armed Violence provides a wealth of data relevant to security and the post 2015 sustainable development framework It estimates that 508 000 people died violently in both conflict and non conflict settings every year in 2007 12 down from 526 000 in 2004 09 This trend is visible in non conflict settings where the proportion of women and girls is also slightly reduced from 17 to 16 per cent Yet the number of direct conflict deaths is on the rise from 55 000 to 70 000 per year over the same periods Firearms are used in close to half of all homicides committed and in almost one third of direct conflict deaths Nearly USD 2 trillion in global homicide related economic losses could have been saved if the homicide rate in 2000 10 had been reduced to the lowest practically attainable levels between 2 and 3 deaths per 100 000 population Children, Youth, and Gun Violence ,2002 Women and Guns Deborah Homsher,2015-05-20 This timely and provocative book looks at contemporary American women and their experiences with guns Scrupulously balanced

Resources in Education, 2001-04 Bellwether David J. Toscano, 2022-05-15 Throughout the early years of the 20th century Virginia was viewed as a Republican state Citizens in the Commonwealth had not voted for a Democratic presidential candidate since 1964 In 2000 the GOP had just won the governor's race held both U S Senate seats and had majorities in both the House of Delegates and the State Senate By 2020 all of that had been reversed During that period Democrats won four of five governors contests elected two US senators and voted for Democratic presidential candidates in every year since 2008 In 2019 the House of Delegates where Republicans maintained a 68-32 supermajority in 2011 flipped to Democratic control With it the state became a Democratic trifecta where the party controlled all of the state's levers of power Bellwether tells the story of how this happened from someone who was in the room at the time David Toscano began his service in the House in 2006 and became the Democratic Leader of the body in 2011 He examines the special nature of Virginia politics the demographic changes that underpin much of its shifting political fortunes and the policies and personalities at the center of the state's dynamics for the last two decades      Nowhere Near the Line Elizabeth H. Boquet, 2016-10-17 When I was starting College Presidents for Gun Safety one of the concerns I heard was the idea that there were just too many issues on which to articulate an opinion Where would it stop Where would we draw the line In light of this latest tragedy on a college campus that could have been any of ours I would say We are nowhere near the line yet Lawrence Schall quoted in Tragedy at Umpqua by Paul Fain Inside Higher Ed October 2 2015 In this short work Elizabeth Boquet explores the line Lawrence Schall describes above tracing the overlaps and intersections of a lifelong education around guns and violence as a student a teacher a feminist a daughter a wife a citizen and across the dislocations and relocations that are part of a life lived in and around school Weaving narratives of family the university classroom and administration her husband's work as a police officer and her work with students and the Poetry for Peace effort that her writing center sponsors in the local schools she recounts her efforts to respond to moments of violence with a pedagogy of peace Can we not acknowledge that our experiences with pain anywhere should render us more not less capable of responding to it everywhere she asks Compassion it seems to me is an infinitely renewable resource
