Gunshot In Paradise My True Story:

A Shot Story David Borkowski, 2015-08-27 The botched robbery didn't do it Neither did the three gunshots It wasn't until he was administered last rites that David Borkowski realized he was about to die at age fifteen A Shot Story From Juvie to Ph D is a riveting account of how being shot saved his life and helped a juvenile delinquent become an esteemed English professor Growing up in a working class section of Staten Island David and his friends thought they had all the answers They knew where to hang out without being hassled where to get high and what to do if the cops showed up But when David and his friend called in a pizza order so they could rob the delivery man things didn't turn out as they'd planned Staring down the barrel of a gun David and his friend panicked and took off as the cop fired Convinced the cop was shooting harmless salt bullets David darted through lawns as the cop gave chase Much later when David was bleeding to death did the cops realize they had hit one of their own the son of a fellow cop Borderline illiterate at the time of the shooting David took his future into his own hands and found salvation in books But his attempts to improve his life were stymied by lack of familial support Bound on all sides by adults who had no faith in his ability to learn or to succeed David persevered and earned his Ph D Funny and poignant but always honest and reflective A Shot Story tracks David Borkowski's life before and after the accident and tells how his having been a rather unremarkable student may have been a blessing in disguise A wonderful addition to the working class narrative genre A Shot Story presents a gripping account of the silences of working class culture as well as the male subculture of Staten Island Through his heartfelt memoir Borkowski explores the universal lesson of turning a wrong into a rite of passage

A Book of Folk-Lore Sabine Baring-Gould, 2020-09-28 In the early days of exploration of prehistoric relics little care was bestowed on discriminating the several layers of deposit through which the spade cut and what was found was thrown up into a common heap and little account was taken as to the depths at which the several deposits lay I had the chance in 1892 of visiting La Laugerie Basse on the Vezere in company with Dr Massenat and M Philibert Lalande who conducted the exploration after MM Christy and Lartet had abandoned the field They had to carry on the work with very limited means but they arrived nevertheless at conclusions which had escaped the earlier explorers

Shooting Polaris John Hales, 2013-04-24 Shooting Polaris is John Hales's fascinating and far reaching account of working as a government surveyor in the southern Utah desert In it he describes his search for a place in the natural world beginning with an afternoon spent tracking down a lost crew member who cracked up on the job and concluding with his supervising a group of at risk teenagers on a backpacking trip in the Escalante wilderness In between he depicts a range of experiences in and outside nature including hostile barroom encounters between surveyors and tourists weekends spent climbing Navajo Mountain and floating what remains of Glen Canyon and late night arguments concerning the meaning and purpose of nature with the eccentric polygamist who ran the town in which the surveyors parked their bunk trailers Although this work is autobiographical Shooting Polaris is so much more It is a reflection on man's relationship to nature and work

Douglass, 1875 Gunshot in Paradise C. M. Hartwell, 2014-11-24 My jaw jerked open and I began gasping for air I noticed that I was choking now as my throat seemed to be blocking up with something my left cheek pressing heavily with the full weight of my head into a warm sticky substance on the floor As I watched the ground in front of me changed colour as a fast growing circle of black centred at my chest began spreading out across the tiles A sweet salty sensation filled the air like a fresh slab of meat being sliced open at a butcher's as the dark liquid at first fully encompassed then quickly surpassed my entire stretched out frame I was transfixed by this rapidly moving pool as it raced over the smooth ceramic then touched and bounced back off the bar panels like a wave hitting a sea wall It reminded me of hot black treacle and I began to think rather worryingly that it looked a lot like blood I put the facts together and with horror grasped that it was mine It felt as though a violation had taken place upon me that I had been powerless to control or stop and for the first time in my life I really understood the word violation and what it meant and all the horrible connotations it holds It was 10 30pm Wednesday the 2nd of February 1994 Great I wish I'd stayed in bed Jason Has Been Shot! Dale Lang, 2003 At the same time that North Americans were focusing on the brave actions of several Christian teens in the Columbine High School shooting in Colorado Canada was quietly having its own Columbine incident What Canadians once thought could only happen in America was now taking place right here in our own backyard to Jason Lang the son of an Anglican pastor But God had a plan for this tragedy Read the true and inspiring story of how a family's torment was used by God as the raw material to turn their anger and grief into a powerful testimony of His grace through the act of forgiving their son's killer Since Jason's death both Dale and his wife Diane have been asked to speak at hundreds of events across the country including over 250 high schools numerous conferences teachers conventions the National Prayer Breakfast television radio churches and numerous other functions During my interview with Pastor Dale Lang I was struck by the depth of his loss and the breadth of his capacity to forgive his son's killer This book will be an inspiration to everyone Jim Cantelon Host Eye to Eye CTS Television Besides being a renowned Anglican priest few realize that Dale Lang holds a record as being the first in history to fly over the North Pole in a hot air balloon Dale's steady hand and heart show the way through the most inhospitable places in a world of heartache sorrow pain and death This book is A Journey into Joy David Mainse 100 Huntley Street Shooting and Fishing, 1901
