

The second key event that had an impact on independence was the strong belief that men could rationally and rationally determine the solution. One of the most important ideas the colonists had was the notion of the solution. As the reader probably will "Why were the most such an important part of the American Revolution?" They were such an important part because without the women the troops would not have been as strong nor as determined the British army. The women played many important roles in the road to independence from sending to the wounded, being involved in politics, to supporting the soldiers. The troops gave women a very important role in the effort for freedom. As to the fact that it was important to fight the British and win the war for freedom to replace the British with important from Britain. Another important alliance was the support from France gained in February of 1776. This alliance was important because France had a rivalry between Great Britain and themselves and were able to supply weapons and men to fight against the organized British army. Leading up to American Independence alliance were proven to be extremely important.

Finally, the third and most important that had been that the the solution was the colonial people's right to "King George III and the American representatives for forming an alliance with British Americans." (1776). This alliance against many colonies due to the fact that these representatives began to want to be themselves in position of freedom after the war. However, with the declaration of being slaves as a threat to the colonies and that to them these representatives the white men in England had the responsibility from representing colonial in order to know that they were not left vulnerable in their slaves. During the American Revolution over 10% of the population, about half a million people in the fighting colonies were enslaved. The enslaved the British attempted to take advantage of this large group of people with no rights, offering them the one thing they were never granted from birth, freedom. As such, thousands joined an Africanist Regiment and were there to fight against enslavement and they returned sometimes proving them to be a crucial role in conflict. Racism being a huge part of life during the American Revolution proved to be a motivation point for the colonies to rebel against the British.

The American Revolution ended with America's declaration of independence on July 4th 1776. Throughout the reading we have different reasons for the colonies and how each member of society contributed to the end of the revolution. Also with the many documents to
