History Pmemorandum June 2014 New Caps:

Unjust Restitution Michael Kingsley Brown, 2025-02-04 The question of economic justice for Black Americans remains unresolved and continues to be the subject of contentious political debate In Unjust Restitution Michael K Brown examines the meaning of racial equality during three transformative periods in American history when significant changes to economic status and opportunity appeared to be a real possibility in the US Reconstruction the New Deal and the Great Society Political leaders believed slavery and Jim Crow degraded Black people and enacted policies to rehabilitate formerly subjugated individuals Black Americans challenged this conception and repudiated the idea that they were damaged people in need of repair Repeatedly Black people s vision of economic justice was based on anti privilege egalitarianism the idea that a just restitution for their oppression required abolishing the political and legal privileges whites had acquired Black opposition reveals what was at stake at each historical moment and what might constitute economic justice in the twenty first century Equality of opportunity can be a just restitution for continuing durable racial inequality only if it changes the structure of people s economic opportunities The European Union's Common Agricultural Policy Reforms Marko

Lovec, 2016-08-02 This book engages in the controversies of the European Union s Common Agricultural Policy CAP reforms demonstrating how these are reiterated by mainstream theoretical approaches in the field The reforms that the European Union s CAP underwent during the last three decades were intended to make it less trade distorting more taxpayer friendly and more able to meet the new challenges of environmental concerns and rural development territorial cohesion The outcome of the reforms has however contradicted these objectives with the controversies being reiterated by the mainstream theoretical approaches in the field European Union s Common Agricultural Policy Reforms argues that these controversies are due to reductionist rationalist and idealist assumptions with regard to the object of inquiry applied by mainstream approaches It proposes an alternative critical approach that takes into account the role of real material factors Critical realism is not just an alternative explanation of CAP reforms but an alternative theory of how explanations can be made which enables readers to reflect upon and endorse the results of existing lines of research in proceeding towards deeper level theory The Evolution of Carbon Markets Jørgen Wettstad, Lars Gulbrandsen, 2017-12-14 Carbon markets are developing and expanding around the world but how and to what extent is their design shaped by learning and interaction between them How do these markets function and what is the role of design Carrying out a ground breaking analysis of their design and diffusion this book covers all the major carbon market systems and processes around the world the EU RGGI California Tokyo New Zealand Australia China South Korea and Kazakhstan It offers a systematic in depth discussion and comparison of the key design features in these systems with expert contributors exploring how and to what extent these features have been shaped by central policy diffusion mechanisms and domestic politics By focussing on the specific design features of the instruments used this volume makes important contributions to diffusion theory highlighting how ETS diffusion processes more often have resulted in design divergence than convergence and discussing the implications of this finding for the vision of linked systems in the post Paris era It will be of significant interest to a broad audience interested in the emergence evolution functioning and interaction of carbon markets      History of Early Named Soybean Varieties in the United States and Canada (1890-2020) William Shurtleff; Akiko Aoyagi,2020-11-25 The world s most comprehensive well documented and well illustrated book on this subject With extensive subject and geographic index 95 photographs and illustrations Free of charge in digital PDF format      The Path to Paralysis Donald G. Nieman,2024-10-15 How did the world s oldest democracy lose its mojo How did we get to a point where we face existential crises like climate change yet leaders can t agree that there s a problem let alone develop solutions Political leaders bear some of the responsibility Newt Gingrich Sarah Palin and Donald Trump to name a few have shattered political norms and transformed our politics into a free for all in which personal attacks appeals to bigotry and fear disregard for truth and disdain for governing have become the norm But they are more a symptom than the cause The Path to Paralysis examines changes in political culture during the past 60 years conflict over race religion and gender wrenching economic changes and growing concentration of wealth the end of the Cold War hardening regional divisions and dramatic changes in communications that made Donald Trump possible if not inevitable Long in the making these cross currents came together in the early 21st century as the United States experienced the deepest recession since the 1930s and elected its first Black president to create the perfect storm The result was toxic and deeply polarised politics that threatened the existence of constitutional government      ICSTIAMI 2019 Tulus Suryanto,Ferry Jie,Abdul Talib Bon,Yulianto Yulianto,Resista Vikaliana,2021-01-27 We are delighted to introduce the proceedings of The International Conference on Science and Technology in Administration and Management Information 2019 ICSTIAMI 2019 ICSTIAMI 2019 is the premier international academic conference on Science and Technology in Administration and Management Information The theme of ICSTIAMI 2019 was held in Jakarta Indonesia is Sustainable Development from Research to Actions This conference is organized by Institut Ilmu Sosial dan Manajemen Stiemi Jakarta Indonesia and cooperation with Huachiew Chalermprakiet University HCU Thailand Universitas Sultan Zainal Abidin Unisza Malaysia Universiti Tun Hussein Onn Malaysia UTHM Universitas Widya Mataram Yogyakarta Indonesia Universitas Pakuan Bogor Indonesia and STEBI Lampung Indonesia IC STIAMI 2019 has brought researchers developers and practitioners around the world to reach out to the administration and management community and to receive high quality exposure to leading and upcoming administration and management scientists from around the world The technical program of ICSTIAMI 2019 consisted of 122 full papers The conference tracks were Track 1 Public Sector Management Track 2 Business Management and Accounting Track 3 Law and Social Humaniora      Land, Indigenous Peoples and Conflict Alan C. Tidwell,Barry Scott Zellen,2015-10-05 Land Indigenous Peoples and Conflict presents an original comparative study of indigenous land and property rights worldwide The book explores how the ongoing constitutional legal and political integration of indigenous peoples into contemporary society has impacted on indigenous institutions and structures for managing land and property This book details some of the common problems experienced by indigenous peoples throughout the world providing lessons and insights from conflict resolution that may find application in other conflicts including inter state and civil and sectarian conflicts An interdisciplinary group of contributors present specific case material from indigenous land conflicts from the South Pacific Australasia South East Asia Africa North and South America and northern Eurasia These regional cases discuss issues such as modernization the evolution of systems and institutions regulating land use access and management and the resolution of indigenous land conflicts drawing out common problems and solutions The lessons learnt from the book will be of value to students researchers legal professionals and policy makers with an interest in land and property rights worldwide      Schooling the Movement Derrick P. Alridge, Jon N. Hale, Tondra L.

Loder-Jackson, 2023-04-20 A fresh examination of teacher activism during the civil rights movement Southern Black educators were central contributors and activists in the civil rights movement They contributed to the movement through their classrooms schools universities and communities Drawing on oral history interviews and archival research Schooling the Movement examines the pedagogical activism and vital contributions of Black teachers throughout the Black freedom struggle By illuminating teachers activism during the long civil rights movement the editors and contributors connect the past with the present contextualizing teachers longstanding role as advocates for social justice Schooling the Movement moves beyond the prevailing understanding that activism was defined solely by litigation and direct action forms of protest The contributors broaden our conceptions of what it meant to actively take part in or contribute to the civil rights movement

Trade Union Strategies against Healthcare Marketization Jennie Aufferberg, 2021-07-22 Marketization in the healthcare sector affects the quality and delivery of care as well as healthcare workers working conditions Based on a comparison of England and Germany along with an in depth case study looking at New York USA this volume examines how trade unions respond to marketization processes and the determinants of successful strategies The author draws on a rich empirical study to develop a theoretical framework that accounts for sector specific opportunity structures stemming from marketization processes and on the relevant unions local level leeway that opens if they build up and mobilise the available resources and capacities The book identifies determinants of successful trade union strategies explains the puzzling observation of similar strategic choices across different systems and draws conclusions for prospects of trade unionism in the marketized healthcare sector This book emphasizes the transformative effect of marketization on healthcare and the opportunities this change creates for unions while giving special attention to the local level conditions of trade unionism in the analysis of conflicts evolving around marketization in the hospital sector It is of interest to academics and practitioners working in healthcare management human resource management and employment relations      Anointed with Oil Darren

Dochuk, 2019-06-04 A groundbreaking new history of the United States showing how Christian faith and the pursuit of petroleum fueled America's rise to global power and shaped today's political clashes. Anointed with Oil places religion and oil at the center of American history. As prize-winning historian Darren Dochuk reveals, from the earliest discovery of oil in America during the Civil War, citizens saw oil as the nation's special blessing and its peculiar burden, the source of its prophetic mission in the world. Over the century that followed and down to the present day, the oil industry's leaders and its ordinary workers together fundamentally transformed American religion, business, and politics, boosting America's ascent as the preeminent global power, giving shape to modern evangelical Christianity, fueling the rise of the Republican Right, and setting the terms for today's political and environmental debates. Ranging from the Civil War to the present, from West Texas to Saudi Arabia to the Alberta Tar Sands and from oil patch boomtowns to the White House, this is a sweeping magisterial book that transforms how we understand our nation's history.
