

The background of the cover features a detailed anatomical illustration of a human figure in a monochromatic red color scheme. In the foreground, a large, semi-transparent illustration of a human torso and right arm is shown, revealing the underlying skeletal structure, including the ribs, spine, and bones of the arm and hand. The figure's head is visible at the top left. In the background, a smaller, more solid-looking illustration of a full human figure is shown in a similar pose, standing with arms slightly away from the body. The overall composition is set against a dark, solid background.
