Munro), Robert E. Howard, August Nemo, 2020-05-12 The myth of the werewolf is ancient dating back to medieval times or earlier Like the vampire it suffered several modifications over time In this book the critic August Nemo brings the vision of different well known authors on the myth of the werewolf Olalla by Robert Louis Stevenson The Wolf Leader by Alexandre Dumas A Pastoral Horror by Arthur Conan Doyle The Mark of the Beast by Rudyard Kipling The Eyes of the Panther by Ambrose Bierce The She Wolf by Saki Wolfshead by Robert E Howard For more books with interesting themes be sure to check the other books in this collection      GRAYSON Kate Bridges, 2025-06-15 She lives by routine He lives by instinct Fate doesn't care about either Thea Brooks is an 18 year old college student juggling classes caffeine fueled shifts at the coffee shop and raising her little sister while her mom works double shifts Her life is all about order balance and survival Romance She doesn't have time for it Then Grayson Dark walks in At 22 Grayson is the ruthless dominant Alpha of his pack and he's spent the last six years searching for his fated mate He'd almost given up hope until her scent drives him wild and brings him to his knees There's just one problem Thea is human Thrown into a world she never knew existed Thea must navigate the dangerous secrets of the supernatural while dealing with an infuriatingly possessive wolf shifter who claims she belongs to him Grayson's temper is brutal His need for control is constant But beneath the anger and dominance lies a man willing to burn the world down to protect her Now Thea must choose between the safe life she's always known or surrendering to a bond that's impossible to fight even as threats close in from every side Oh and she still has to pass midterms 18 CONTENT WARNING This book contains steamy sexual content supernatural violence strong language and emotionally intense scenes Recommended for mature readers who love their romance dark dominant and deliciously addictive      Animal Encounters Susan Crane, 2012-11-29 Traces of the living animal run across the entire corpus of medieval writing and reveal how pervasively animals mattered in medieval thought and practice In fascinating scenes of cross species encounters a raven offers St Cuthbert a lump of lard that waterproofs his visitors boots for a whole year a scholar finds inspiration for his studies in his cat s perfect focus on killing mice and a dispossessed knight wins back his heritage only to give it up again in order to save the life of his warhorse Readers have often taken such encounters to be merely figurative or fanciful but Susan Crane discovers that these scenes of interaction are firmly grounded in the intimate cohabitation with animals that characterized every medieval milieu from palace to village The animal encounters of medieval literature reveal their full meaning only when we recover the living animal s place within the written animal The grip of a certain humanism was strong in medieval Britain as it is today the humanism that conceives animals in diametrical opposition to humankind Yet medieval writing was far from univocal in this regard Latin and vernacular works abound in other ways of thinking about animals that invite the saint the scholar and the knight to explore how bodies and minds interpenetrate across species lines Crane brings these other ways of thinking to light in her readings of the beast fable the hunting treatise the saint s life the bestiary and other genres Her substantial contribution to the field of animal studies investigates how animals and people interact in culture making how conceiving the animal is integral to conceiving the human and how cross species encounters transform both their animal and their human participants
