Uneasy Encounters Iris Borowy, 2009 Early twentieth century China went through a tumultuous period marked by the end of an ancient monarchy political instability and profound cultural upheaval The medical discourse both reflected and contributed to these transformations Western medicine arrived in China as part of missionary foreign imperialist and internal modernization efforts In various ways it interacted with Chinese practices and belief systems The contributions in this volume explore important episodes of this multi faceted process describing key institutions personalities and their respective motives and interests Collectively the chapters reveal a complex web of interlocking dimensions which evade simple categorizations of Western or Chinese exploitive or supportive traditional or modern

Writing From The Heart Peggy Veljkovic, Arthur Schwartz, 2009-07-27 Writing from the Heart offers us a unique window into what young people have learned about life This collection of essays captures the values that matter most to teens values such as love perseverance family and helping others in their own words As the young writers reflect on their own experience readers of all ages will be inspired by their wisdom and hope From Chattanooga to China these essays are all extraordinary They not only celebrate the accomplishments of the young writers but also offer an opportunity to peer into the hearts and minds of young people around the world Readers may be amazed at some of the hardships that these teens have faced but will have a deep sense of optimism for our future In

Sadly Christina's journey and her children's experience of being collateral damage is not atypical Kudos for her strength and bravery in putting her story out there as a cautionary tale for others Dr Susan Weitzman author Not to People like Us Hidden Abuse in Upscale Marriages Christina Mask's Nightmare is constructed around fragments from a life in agony as one woman attempts to escape abuse retain her sanity and regain the custody of three children the family court and her husband have taken from her It's all here the daily records over months then years the diary entries the self blame the excuses the shame the absurdist dialogues with family therapists marginalia from readings or lectures or religious texts letters pleadings with judges and lawyers and evaluators poems letters to and from the children real and imagined the reports that put her claims of abuse in quotations and so so much more These pieces are loosely joined by a narrative and an interior monologue that I sometimes found too much to bear But then I realized I was scanning something akin to a Picasso painting whose underlying truth lay not in what was on the page not the fragments but in the hope that put them out here no more evident than in the endlessly reasonable letters Mask writes to intractable foes Mask has cast her eye on what Yeats termed the broken crumbling battlement of the self and lived to write it As one director famously said about the sixty women and children crowded into her six bedroom shelter If they can manage this they can manage anything Christina's book gives us faith that she is right Evan Stark PhD MSW The writer is professor emeritus at Rutgers University and author of Coercive Control How Men Entrap Women in Personal Life Oxford 2007
