European Dimensions and the Secondary School Curriculum Ivor Goodson,Veronica McGivney,2018-10-03 Originally published in 1985 Europe and the EEC seemed to be virtually synonymous for the majority of our population and the ambivalent feelings many people have about the Community together with the consistently bad press it received in the UK seemed to engender a hostility in educational circles towards teaching about Europe as a whole However if one of the aims of education is to increase children's awareness tolerance and understanding of the world about them to widen their experience and horizons then teaching about the wider world must have a place in the curriculum This book argues for education about Europe not necessarily in favour of Europe breaking down the national insularity of the UK curriculum and using Europe as one convenient window on the wider world

Maritime East Asia Mihoko Oka, 2022-04-06 This book is divided into two parts One is the state of trade in East Asia before and after the collapse of the tributary system to the Ming Dynasty and the other is the war of aggression in which Toyotomi Hideyoshi of Japan sent a large number of troops to the Korean Peninsula with a view of conquering China at the end of the sixteenth century With regard to East Asia in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries the contributors in this book share a problem awareness in terms of using trade and war as subjects to clarify multi ethnic borderless and multilayered situations Although there are many chapters related to Japan this book tries to grasp the interaction between Japan as a region of East Asia and neighboring countries from a global perspective not the one singular national history Students Taking Action
