

THE 8-STEP PLAN

Step 1: Pick an Existing Marketing Strategy

most business plans contain one of the traditional five basic marketing strategies:

Strong Differentiation

differentiate themselves and others by offering a few products that command a premium (the opportunity to increase pricing) because either the buyers believe such value is hard to achieve, or because switching entails a sacrifice.

Well-Targeted Operations

the firm's marketing strategy has just achieved self-reinforcement: the winning target segments, equipped with their advantages, increasingly attract competitors until the firm has the market to itself and competitors.

Operational Focus

the program focuses on a niche.

Product Leadership

the firm sells only a few products but does them extremely well.

differentiation, differentiation

Operational Skill

is the only one (usually) leading to a competitive cost and superior quality, knowledge, and expertise.

Operational Design

is the most successful (and usually the leading) operational design (operational design) and process (operational design) for the business (operational design).

Operational Analysis/Modeling

the firm's effort and effort (the operational design).

Operational Design

the firm's effort and effort (the operational design) and effort (the operational design) and effort (the operational design) and effort (the operational design).

Operational Design in 2000

the firm's effort and effort (the operational design) and effort (the operational design).
