Ripples Phil Sisson,2012-01-03 Author Phil Sisson offers a stream of non stop insights and raw personal experiences into how to connect ones own dots The book shows that it is possible to heal from past emotional wounds The original title was Connecting the Dots inspired by Steve Jobs 2005 commencement address at Stanford University But with Jobs passing the author realized that a very important dot so critical to following ones heart could not be connected by just looking backwards it can only be connected by looking backwards and forward The original idea of the book started in 1976 the year he graduated from UCLA With so many dots to connect he admits that youth and fear kept him from facing the real self and that he didnt have a clue of where to begin RiPpLeS is the result of his struggle to connect his own heart wrenching personal dots By being engaged with young performing artists he saw first hand how others were caught up in their own quandaries and confusions expending an extraordinary amount of energy trying to unravel them As a young college student studying acting and as the years accumulated so did the confusions He was desperate to end the charades but didnt know how and psychologists were of no help at all By 2006 after years of performing on stage he discovered that he was able to help young aspiring dancers learn to act by getting in touch with their own early childhood emotions hidden so deep they were unable to give authentic performances on stage Instead of performing they were hiding behind words he says The goal of his book is about connecting the dots looking backwards and forward The forward dots are the ones that heal and healing is about helping others become authentic doers That is when the concept of RiPpLeS was born The title sums up his experiences and struggle to become an authentic human being and actor In a single word RiPpLeS illustrates everything he believes Starting with a single pebble thrown into the stillness of consciousness it is the first trauma of our lives and with the dropping of that pebble the ponds very center begins to emanate from within causing ripples on the surface that move away in all directions in search of equilibrium and finally to be still once again That one image described perfectly the way I have experienced my own life he says Our life experiences are the trauma that not only affects the individual but all the people we meet expanding out in all directions towards a perfect state of renewed equilibrium That is what this book and connecting the dots is all about
