The Five-Factor Model of Personality Across Cultures Robert R. McCrae, Juri Allik, 2012-12-06 ROBERT R MCCRAE it is simply personality research conducted in different countries The implicit assumption behind this practice is that personality processes are universal and where they are studied is thus of no consequence An insensitivity to cultural context once imputed mostly to Americans now appears to characterize the field worldwide Fortunately recent years have also seen a rise of interest in studies of personality and culture Church 2001 Church Lee McCauley McCrae 2000 What do these new studies show Are personality processes indeed universal or are there significant variations across cultures that necessitate a more nuanced approach to research There is as yet no definitive answer to that question In some respects human personality does seem to transcend the boundaries of language and culture in other respects it is profoundly influenced by social and historical forces Sorting these issues out must be a priority for our field if we are to understand the current personality literature

Shoko's Smile Choi Eunyoung, 2021-06-01 A bestselling and award winning debut collection from one of South Korea's most prominent young writers In crisp unembellished prose Eun young Choi paints intimate portraits of the lives of young women in South Korea balancing the personal with the political In the title story a fraught friendship between an exchange student and her host sister follows them from adolescence to adulthood In A Song from Afar a young woman grapples with the death of her lover traveling to

Russia to search for information about the deceased In Secret the parents of a teacher killed in the Sewol ferry sinking hide the news of her death from her grandmother In the tradition of Sally Rooney Banana Yoshimoto and Marilynne Robinson writers from different cultures who all take an unvarnished look at human relationships and the female experience Choi Eunyoung is a writer to watch Hylozoic Rudy Rucker,2009-05-26 After the Singularity everyone and everything is sentient and telepathic Aliens notice and invade Earth In Rucker s last novel Postsingular the Singularity happened and life on Earth was transformed by the awakening of all matter into consciousness and into telepathic communication The most intimate moments of your life can be experienced by anyone who cares to pay attention or by hundreds of thousands of anyones if you are one of the Founders who helped create the Singularity The small bunch of Founders including young newlyweds Thuy a hypertext novelist and Jayjay a gamer and brain enhancement addict are living a popular live action media life But now alien races that have already gone through this transformation notice Earth for the first time and begin to arrive to exploit both the new environment and any available humans Some of them are real estate developers some are slavers and some just want to help But how to tell the difference Someone has to save humanity from the alien invasions and it might as well be reality media stars Thuy and Jayjay At the Publisher s request this title is being sold without Digital Rights

Voices from the Camps James M. Freeman,Nguyen Dinh Huu,2011-07-01 Wave after wave of political and economic refugees poured out of Vietnam beginning in the late 1970s overwhelming the resources available to receive them Squalid conditions prevailed in detention centers and camps in Hong Kong and throughout Southeast Asia where many refugees spent years languishing in poverty neglect and abuse while supposedly being protected by an international consortium of caregivers Voices from the Camps tells the story of the most vulnerable of these refugees children alone either orphaned or separated from their families Combining anthropology and social work with advocacy for unaccompanied children everywhere James M Freeman and Nguyen Dinh Huu present the voices and experiences of

Vietnamese refugee children neglected and abused by the system intended to help them Authorities in countries of first asylum faced with thousands upon thousands of increasingly frightened despairing and angry people needed to determine on a case by case basis whether they should be sent back to Vietnam or be certified as legitimate refugees and allowed to proceed to countries of resettlement The international community led by UNHCR devised a well intentioned screening system Unfortunately as Freeman and Nguyen demonstrate it failed unaccompanied children The hardships these children endured are disturbing but more disturbing is the story of how the governments and agencies that set out to care for them eventually became the children s tormenters When Vietnam after years of refusing to readmit illegal emigrants reversed its policy the international community began doing everything it could to force them back to Vietnam Cutting rations closing schools separating children from older relations and other caregivers relocating them in order to destroy any sense of stability the authorities employed coercion and effective abuse with distressing ease all in the name of the best interests of the children While some children eventually managed to construct a decent life in Vietnam or elsewhere including the United States all have been scarred by their refugee experience and most are still struggling with the legacy Freeman and Nguyen s presentation and analysis of this sobering chapter in recent history is a cautionary tale and a call to action Children of
