The Russia-Ukraine War: A Manifestation of the 'New Cold War'? Karim Fathi, 2025-07-27 The war in Ukraine has captivated the world Current coverage is emotional and largely limited to the military aspects of the war Contributions from Peace and Conflict Studies have been under represented in the current debate They are even subject to anti pacifist criticism The question of what is needed for a lasting peace is hardly addressed This question is all the more important as this war has a highly explosive global dimension in its depth with indirect links to other territorial conflicts such as the China Taiwan conflict In parallel with the war there is a growing global bloc between East and West and since Donald Trump took office in January 2025 an internal split in the West with an uncertain outcome Some observers speak of a New Cold War with the two superpowers the US and China and the EU and Russia as the main players At the same time the war seems to be acting as a catalyst for a new multilateral world order The book outlines in a concise and generally understandable form how a multidimensional analysis of complex conflicts such as the Russia Ukraine war can be approached and how approaches to conflict intervention and foreign policy can be derived from this complexity It also provides impetus for the further development of Peace Studies into a multi paradigmatic field of research The Crisis of Psychoanalysis Erich
