A Case Study in Contextualization Fred W. McRae, 2014-01-30 The content of the gospel never changes however communicating it constantly fluctuates Conveying the gospel to a homeless hungry woman may include providing a hot bowl of chili while an agnostic co worker might be open after several rounds of golf The message is the same but the method of communicating it is as wide and varied as life itself Finding the correct method is like hitting the sweet spot on a tennis racket or golf club It takes time study and practice but once you find it you have more success

The Impact of Church Consultancy Ian G. Duncum, 2019-01-14 This book follows the journey of ten churches who underwent church consultancies and explores in depth both the consultancy and its outcomes Pre consultancy and post consultancy snapshots four to five years apart of vitality indicators and attendance figures using National Church Life Survey and other data are used to compare these with churches that have not undertaken church consultancies Theologies of church consultancy church health and church growth are also developed and examined intersecting with a wide body of literature including contemporary ecclesiologies Consultancy outcomes are examined in detail This includes interviews with pastors of some of those churches reflecting on their perceptions of whether and how the church consultancy impacted the health and growth of their church Conclusions are drawn about the efficacy of church consultancy in influencing the health and growth of churches as well as contexts for the best use of church consultancy This is a significant book for denominational leaders theological lecturers pastors and church leaders as they encounter lack of health in churches and seek ways forward for greater health and impact in their local communities

Understanding Christian Leadership Ian Parkinson, 2020 Understanding Christian Leadership offers an examination of a distinctly Christian understanding of leadership offering a critical appraisal of insights from secular theories of leadership exploring biblical and other theological insights into the nature and practice of leadership Whilst arguing for a form of leadership which is widely dispersed and collaborative the book seeks to explain the distinctive role of leaders within such a leadership economy It also seeks to establish a proper relationship between sacred and secular leadership thinking tackling some of the common philosophical and theological reservations to do with leadership discourse whilst offering a critical framework for discerning the suitability for the Church of different sources of leadership thinking Designed as core reading for leadership modules currently taught by the author across a large number of training contexts in the UK this book is an indispensable text for those taking undergraduate or postgraduate level qualifications in Christian leadership as well as those in other less formal leadership training contexts Foreword by Justin Welby Archbishop of Canterbury Transformational Leadership: The Senior Pastor's Impact on Church Effectiveness David Rumley, 2011-09-29 Struggling with church health and growth Struggling with growing in your personal leadership abilities and impact This book provides a greater understanding of leadership church growth and church effectiveness It engages the audience to learn transformational leadership and how the pastor can be more effective in how they lead Learn from recent research the impact a senior pastor makes on churches effectiveness and why transformational leadership style will impact the health and growth of a church Choosing Change Peter Coutts, 2013-08-05 Humans have been choice makers since the days when hunter gatherers had to decide when to hunt and what to gather Making choices is what humans do But individuals feel more personal autonomy and power to choose today than ever before in human history In Choosing Change author Peter Coutts acknowledges that clergy today recognize the impact our individualistic culture of choice is having on congregations But Coutts also points out that many leaders do not think about motivation For them encouraging change is about selling their congregation on a new idea governed by the assumption that a better idea should win the day Wide experience in the church demonstrates that this approach often doesn't work and leaves many congregational leaders demoralized Leaders see the need for change in their congregation and they earnestly want to help their congregation to change But the approach to leadership they learned which perhaps worked better in days gone by is no longer working Leaders are in the motivation business argues Coutts Choosing Change provides an overview of current thinking from the field of motivation psychology In the first half of the book Coutts explores theories ideas and terms that are most pertinent for leaders who desire to encourage congregational change The second half of the book offers detailed guidance for congregational leaders who want to be motivational leaders The Acts and Proceedings of the 201st Regular Session of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America , The Practice of Mission in Global Methodism David W. Scott, Darryl W. Stephens, 2021-04-19 This book brings together Methodist scholars and reflective practitioners from around the world to consider how emerging practices of mission and evangelism shape contemporary theologies of mission Engaging contemporary issues including migration nationalism climate change postcolonial contexts and the growth of the Methodist church in the Global South this book examines multiple forms of mission including evangelism education health and ministries of compassion A global group of contributors discusses mission as no longer primarily a Western activity but an enterprise of the entire church throughout the world This volume will be of interest to researchers studying missiology evangelism global Christianity and Methodism and to students of Methodism and mission

GAO Energy Digest United States. General Accounting Office, 1977 Rediscovering a Ministry of Health Helen A.

Wordsworth,2015-02-20 It is not possible to look at the ministry of Jesus without noticing his concern for the poor and the sick He not only had a huge sense of compassion for people who were suffering but sent people out to heal the sick and tell them the Kingdom of God is near them This concern for health and wholeness has inspired Christians through the ages as they have cared for the sick founded hospitals and been at the forefront of public health movements In the nineteenth century the church was one of the major influencers in initiating ministries of health both through the work of its own deaconesses and the involvement of its members as they felt a sense of vocation to nursing and public health work Florence Nightingale was a theologian and statistician as well as being a nurse leader However with the advent of state health provision and private health insurance schemes the role of the local church in health has diminished This book describes a simple way for churches to re engage with health ministry and presents evidence that underlines not only a Biblical authenticity for its place in the mission of a local church but also a compelling rationale for its implementation It will be of interest to church leaders and all those involved in health care

ReClaimed Church Bill Henard,2018-06-01 It s no secret churches are dying Tragically thousands of churches in the United States are shrinking some closing their doors forever The key to reversing these trends argues Bill Henard is for a local church to recognize where it is in the church life cycle Unless churches intentionally do something about it many of them will follow the same pattern from birth to plateau and eventually to death But if a church learns to identify its place within the life cycle and embraces the necessary processes it can return to growth In a day when church membership has decreased evangelistic zeal has cooled and budgets are disappearing ReClaimed Church is the tool that struggling churches need Having previously written and taught seminary courses on church revitalization Bill Henard uses his expertise to provide all the practical insights and instructions needed to reclaim your church

Shepherding Movement S. David Moore,2004-04-08 An engaging history of the Shepherding Movement an influential and controversial expression of the charismatic renewal in the 1970s and 1980s This neopentecostal movement led by popular Bible teachers Ern Baxter Don Basham Bob Mumford Derek Prince and Charles Simpson became a house church movement in the United States The Shepherding Movement is a case study of an attempt at renewing church structures Many critics accused the movement of being authoritarian because of its emphasis on submission to a personal pastor or shepherd as they termed it

Social-Cultural Anthropology George Allan Phiri,2009-09-01 Effective communication with the African society in the field of missions church planting and social development work has been and continues to be a great challenge particularly to people from western cultural and language orientation Africans are a we rather than I and a depended on rather than independent of society The worldview of a traditional African in terms of society relationships and communication is communal Certainly the African perception of communalism affects how they communicate with the people of different cultural orientation Africa has several cultures and people differ in their communication depending on their cultural orientation However there are universal African cultures that act as a framework for understanding key aspects of communication with Africans for successful missions church planting and social development work This book therefore provides a strategy of understanding communication with the African society The discussions in this book provide readers with different cultural orientations unique perception of the African society as s he may be planning to communicate with the African society for missions church planting and social development work even doing humanitarian ministry in African society Although literacy levels have improved tremendously in most African countries most of Africa is not a reading society It is imperative to understand that most Africans still communicate orally and are not time conscious Hence effective communication in African societies ought to be based on storytelling rather than literature distribution although this is in transition In fact Africans are oratory and good listeners Thus this book provides an understanding to people of different cultural orientations when they plan to communicate with the people in Africa

St. Bride's Church London Gustav Milne, 2014-06-30 One of the first English attempts to mount the total research excavation of an urban parish church at blitz damaged St Bride s in Fleet Street in the City of London is recorded in this report St Bride s foundation date is earlier than indicated by surviving documentary records and highlights the complexity of its subsequent development Moreover it demonstrates how archaeology can significantly extend the history of such a relatively well documented building Professor Grimes died before completing his definitive report this report is as an attempt to make good that omission It is an assessment of the surviving field records and a re evaluation of 1950s finds together with an account of building recording at St Bride s in 1992 3 conducted by a team from University College London These excavations prove to be of more than local significance to medieval archaeologists It was on the site of St Bride s that the concept of a parish church s research excavation was first evolved after the rubble from dozens of churches bombed during the Second World War were usually carted away with little or no thought for archaeological recording Among many problems faced were the logistics of opening up a large internal area and exposing large groups of burials Evidence was found not only at foundation level in the ground but also in the standing fabric of the medieval building elements of which survive in the present standing building Detailed study of the finds recovered in 1952 4 also proved rewarding and reports on the pottery moulded stones tiles grave covers glass and coins are included

Exploring a Heritage Anne-Louise Eriksson, Goran Gunner, Niclas Blader, 2012-11-08 From a historical perspective similarities among the Lutheran churches in Denmark Iceland Norway and Sweden are easily understood But these previously homogeneous northern societies built on a Lutheran tradition with close ties between church and state are now considered to be among the most secular in the world as well as being impacted by a growing presence of other religions These changes present a major challenge to the churches concerning how to relate to the state and how to be a folk church The goal of this volume is to explore how Lutheran identity presently shapes churches in the north What are the burning issues engaging these churches at the beginning of the third millennium Are there signs that they are affected by the global emergence of a theology and practice commonly known as Neo Pentecostal or Charismatic What is the situation for women in these churches embedded in societies ranked among the world s most egalitarian In what ways does their Lutheran heritage influence how these churches shape themselves today The point of departure for this study is not a predetermined normative understanding of what a Lutheran church is or should be but the fact that the churches presented here represent what Lutheranism is today in this part of the world Contributors include Anne Louise Eriksson Steinunn Arnthrudur Bjornsdottir Solveig Anna Boasdottir Niclas Blader Carl Reinhold Brakenhielm Thomas Ekstrand Arnfri ur Gu mundsdottir Goran Gunner Harald Hegstad Hjalti Hugason Roger Jensen Halvard Johannessen Peter Lodberg Benedicte Hammer Pr stholm Karin Sarja Ulrika Svalfors Merete Thomassen Marie Thomsen Marie Vejrup Nielsen and Else Marie Wiberg Pedersen
