

2024 ECONOMICS 12 MACROECONOMICS ESSAYS (P1)

A. CIRCULAR FLOW

1. Discuss in detail the markets within the FOUR-SECTOR model. (28 marks)

INTRODUCTION

- ✓ Market is the mechanism that brings buyers and sellers together to exchange goods and services. ✓✓
- ✓ Markets coordinate economic activities and determine prices of goods and services. ✓✓

BODY

PRODUCT AND FACTOR MARKETS

Product market/Goods/Output markets ✓

- Product market is where goods and services are exchanged for money. ✓✓
- E.g. Shoprite retailer. ✓
- These are markets for consumer goods and services. ✓✓
- In economics a distinction is made between goods and services:
- Goods are defined as any tangible items such as clothing, food cars that satisfy human wants or need. ✓✓
- Capital and consumer goods are traded in these markets. ✓✓
- Capital goods market are trading buildings and machinery. ✓✓
- Consumer goods markets are trading durable consumer goods, semi-durable goods and non-durable goods. ✓✓
- Services are defined as non-tangible actions e.g. wholesalers and retailer, transport and financial markets. ✓✓

Factor market/Resource/Input markets ✓

- Factor market is where factors of production are traded. ✓✓ e.g. labour is hired and capital is borrowed. ✓✓
- Households sell factors of production in this market. ✓✓
- These services earn wages for labour, interest for capital, rent for natural resources and profits for entrepreneurship. ✓✓
- Labour can be bought and sold in this market. ✓✓
- Factor market includes labour, property and financial markets. ✓✓
 - ✓ Product markets and factor markets are related in the sense that the demand for factor services is a derived demand. ✓✓

The Oxford Handbook of Transnational Law Peer Zumbansen, 2021-04-30 The Oxford Handbook of Transnational Law offers a unique and unparalleled treatment and presentation in the field of Transnational Law that has become one of the most intriguing and innovative developments in legal doctrine scholarship theory and practice today This in itself constitutes an ambitious editorial project not only within law and legal doctrine but also with regard to an increasing interest in an interdisciplinary engagement of law with social sciences including sociology anthropology political science geography and political theory Closely tied into the substantive transformation that many legal fields are undergoing is the observation that many of these developments are driven by changes in an increasingly global legal practice today The concept then of transnational law aims at capturing the distinctly border crossing nature even of those legal fields which had for the longest been time been seen as having merely domestic relevance This shift also requires a conscious effort among law school classroom instructors casebook authors and curriculum reformers to adapt their teaching content to these circumstances As the authors of this Handbook make clear this adaptation requires a close dialogue between a scholarly investigation into the transnational concept of law and the challenges faced by practicing lawyers be that as solicitor in house counsel as judges or as bureaucrats in a globalized regulatory and socio economic environment While the main thrust is on the transnationalization of legal doctrine and legal theory with a considerable contribution from and engagement with social sciences the Handbook features numerous reflections on the relationship between transnational law and legal practice

African Economic Development Christopher Cramer, John Sender, Arkebe Oqubay, 2020-06-10 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations Unevenness and inequalities form a central fact of African economic experiences This book challenges conventional wisdoms about economic performance and possible policies for economic development in African countries using the striking variation in economic performance as a starting point African Economic Development Evidence Theory and Policy highlights not only difference between countries but also variation within countries It focuses on issues relating to gender class and ethnic identity such as neonatal mortality school dropout and horticultural and agribusiness exports Variations in these areas point to opportunities for changing performance reducing reducing inequalities learning from other policy experiences and escaping the ties of structure and the legacies of a colonial past African Economic Development rejects teleological illusions and Eurocentric prejudice criticizing a range of orthodox and heterodox economists for their cavalier attitude to evidence Instead it shows that seeing the contradictions of capitalism for what they are fundamental and enduring may help policy officials protect themselves against the misleading idea that development can be expected to be a smooth linear process or that it would be if certain impediments were removed Drawing on decades of research and policy experience this book combines careful use of available evidence from a range of African countries with economic insights to make the policy case for specific types of public sector investment

Elite Authenticity Gwynne Mapes, 2021-05-26 Food plays a central role in the production of culture and is likewise a powerful resource for the representation and organization of social order Status is asserted or contested through both the materiality of food its substance its raw economics and its manufacture or preparation and through its discursivity its marketing staging and the way it is depicted and discussed This intersection of materiality and discursivity makes food an ideal site for examining the place of language in contemporary class formations and for engaging cutting edge debates in sociolinguistics on language materiality In Elite Authenticity Gwynne Mapes integrates theories of mediatization materiality and authenticity in order to explore the discursive production of elite status and class inequality in food discourse Relying on a range of methodological approaches Mapes examines restaurant reviews and articles published in the New York Times food section a collection of Instagram posts from nytfood ethnographically informed fieldwork in four renowned Brooklyn NY restaurants and a recorded dinner conversation with six food enthusiasts Across these varied genres of data she demonstrates how a discourse of elite authenticity represents a particular surfacing of rhetorical maneuvers in which distinction is orchestrated avowed disavowed and circulated Elite Authenticity takes a multimodal critical discourse analysis approach drawing on theories from linguistics food and cultural studies anthropology sociology and philosophy Its presentation and analysis of aural visual spatial material and embodied discourse will be of interest to scholars and students of communication studies critical discourse studies sociolinguistics linguistic anthropology and cultural geography

Economic Growth and the Middle Class in an Economy in Transition Zoya Nissanov, 2017-01-24 This book studies the evolution of the middle class in Russia after the fall of the Soviet Union Using data from the RLMS Russian Longitudinal Monitoring Survey the volume covers the period of transition 1991 2008 during which many fundamental economic reforms were implemented The first part of the book is devoted to a discussion of the concept of middle class and a description of the economic situation in Russia during the transition period Particular attention is given to variations in the distribution of Russian incomes and the estimated importance of the middle class The second part of the book focuses on the link between the middle class and income bipolarization The third and last section of the book uses the semiparametric mixture model to discover how many different groups may be derived from the income distribution in Russia as well as what the main socio economic and demographic characteristics of those groups are The mobility of households into and out of the middle class during the transition period is also studied in hopes of determining the factors that contribute to such mobility Using rigorous empirical methods this volume sheds light on a relatively unstudied economic group and provides insight for countries which are about to enter a transition period As such this book will be of great interest to researchers in economics and inequality as well as professionals and practitioners working with international organizations

The Age of Increasing Inequality Lars Osberg, 2018-09-11 Canada is in a new era For 35 years the country has become vastly wealthier but most people have not For the top 1% and even more for the top 0.1% the last 35 years have been a bonanza

Canadians know very well that there is a huge problem. It is expressed in resistance to tax increases, concerns over unaffordable housing, demands for higher minimum wages and pressure for action on the lack of good full-time jobs for new graduates. This book documents the dramatic and rapid growth in inequality. It identifies the causes. And it proposes meaningful steps to halt and reverse this dangerous trend. Lars Osberg looks separately at the top, middle and bottom of Canadian incomes. He provides new data which will surprise even shock many readers. He explains how trade deals have contributed to putting a lid on incomes for workers. The gradual decline of unions in the private sector has also been a factor. On the other end of the scale, he explains the growing high salaries for corporate executives, managers and some fortunate professionals. Lars Osberg believes that increasing inequality is bad for the country and its unfairness is toxic to public life. But there is nothing inevitable about this and he points to innovative measures that would produce a fairer distribution of wealth among all Canadians.

Litigation, Costs, Funding and Behaviour Willem H. van Boom, 2016-12-08. This collection explores the practical operation of the law in the area of litigation costs and funding and confronts the issue of how exposure to cost risks affects litigation strategy. It looks at the interaction of the relevant legal regime, regulatory framework and disciplinary rules with the behaviour of litigants, courts and legislatures, examining subjects such as cost rules and funding arrangements. The book discusses a wide range of topics such as cost shifting, rules, funding and mass tort litigation, cost rules and third party funding, TPF rules in specific areas such as intellectual property, IP litigation, commercial arbitration, investment arbitration, the role of legal expense insurance, arrangements, fee regulation and professional ethics. The contributors include renowned scholars, experts in their respective fields and well-versed individuals in both civil procedure and the practice of litigation, arbitration and finance. Together they present a broad approach to the issues of costs, cost shifting, rules and third party funding. This volume adds to the existent literature in combining topics in law and practice and presents an analysis of the most recent developments in this fast-developing area.

The Cambridge Handbook of Class Actions Brian T. Fitzpatrick, Randall S. Thomas, 2021-02-18. Economic activity is more globally integrated than ever before but so is the scope of corporate misconduct. As more and more people across the world are affected by such malfeasance, the differences in legal redress have become increasingly visible. This transparency has resulted in a growing convergence towards an American model of robust private enforcement of the law, including the class action lawsuit. This handbook brings together scholars from nearly two dozen countries to describe and assess the class action procedure or its equivalent in their respective countries and, where possible, to offer empirical data on these systems. At the same time, the work presents a variety of multidisciplinary perspectives on class actions, from economics to philosophy, making this handbook an essential resource to academics, lawyers and policymakers alike.

Social Justice and Islamic Economics Toseef Azid,Lutfi Sunar,2019-02-25 Under the rule of the current economic order social injustice is ever increasing Issues such as poverty inhumane working conditions inadequate wages social insecurity and an unhealthy labor market continue to persist Many states are also unable to produce policies capable of resolving these problems The characteristics of the capitalist system currently render it unable to provide social justice In fact on the contrary the system reinforces these injustices and prevents economic and social welfare from reaching the masses Many Muslim scholars have analyzed and indeed criticized this system for years This book argues that an alternative and more equitable theoretical and practical economical order can be developed within the framework of Islamic principles On the other hand the experiences of societies under the rule of Muslim governments do not always seem to hold great promise for an alternative understanding of social justice In addition the behaviors of Muslim individuals within their economic lives are mostly shaped by the necessities of daily economic conditions rather than by the tenets of Islam that stand with social justice Until 1990s studies of Islamic economics made connections between finance and the notion of social justice but work conducted more recently has neglected this issue It is therefore evident that the topic of social justice needs to be revisited in a more in depth manner Filling an important gap in existing literature the book uniquely connects social justice and Islamic finance and economics on this topic Theory practice and key issues are presented simultaneously throughout this book which is based on the writings of a number of eminent scholars

Reframing Finance Ashby Monk,Rajiv Sharma,Duncan L. Sinclair,2017-08-08 Since the 2008 financial crisis beneficiary organizations like pension funds sovereign wealth funds endowments and foundations have been seeking ways to mitigate the risk of their investments and make better financial decisions For them Reframing Finance offers a path forward This book argues that institutional investors would better serve their long term goals by putting money into large scale future facing projects such as infrastructure green energy innovation in agriculture and real estate development At the same time redirecting long term investments would close significant financial gaps that government cannot Drawing on key contributions in economic sociology social network theory and economics the book conceptualizes a collaborative model of investment that is already becoming increasingly common Large investors contribute more directly to private market assets while financial intermediaries seek to foster co investment partnerships better aligning incentives for all A combination of rich case studies and rigorous theory enables asset owners to move toward more efficient private market investing while also laying groundwork for research at the frontier of finance Journal of Economic Literature ,2014 Latin America's Emerging Middle Classes J. Dayton-Johnson,2015-01-27 Politicians business leaders and citizens look with hope to the Latin American middle class for political stability and purchasing power but the economic position of the middle class remains vulnerable The contributors document the remarkable emergence of this middle group in Latin America whose measurement turns out not to be an easy task Handbook on Class and Social Stratification in China Yingjie Guo,2016-01-29 This comprehensive and interdisciplinary Handbook illustrates the patterns of class transformation in China since 1949 situating them in their historical context Presenting detailed case studies of social stratification and class formation in a wide range of settings the expert international contributors provide invaluable insights into multiple aspects of China s economy polity and society The Handbook on Class and Social Stratification in China explores critical contemporary topics which are rarely put in perspective or schematized therefore placing it at the forefront of progressive scholarship These include state power as a determinant of life chances women s social mobility in relation to marriage the high school entrance exam as a class sorter class stratification in relation to health China s rural migrant workers and labour politics Eminently readable this systematic exploration of class and stratification will appeal to scholars and researchers with an interest in class formation status attainment social inequality mobility development social policy and politics in China and Asia Russian Modernization Markku Kivinen,Brendan G. Humphreys,2020-11-29 Building on an original interpretation of social theory and an interdisciplinary approach this book creates a new paradigm in the Russian studies Taking a fresh view of Russia s multiple experiences of modernization it seeks to explain the Putin era in a completely new way This book explores the paradoxical and contradictory aspects of Russia analyzing the energy dependent economy and hybrid political regime but also religion welfare and culture and their often complex interrelations Written by a community of both Western and Russian scholars this book re affirms the value of social science when confronting a society that has undergone enormous and costly systematic changes The Russian elites see modernization narrowly as economic and technological competitiveness The contributors to this volume see contemporary Russia facing a series of antinomies which are macro level dilemmas that cannot be abolished either by philosophical mediation or by immediate political decisions As such they are the tension fields that constitute choices for various competing agencies This book will be of interest to scholars and students of Russian studies transition studies sociology social policy political science energy policy cultural studies and stratification studies Professionals involved in energy ecology and security policy will also find this publication a rich source Capitalism Anwar Shaikh,2016-01-15 Orthodox economics operates within a hypothesized world of perfect competition in which perfect consumers and firms act to bring about supposedly optimal outcomes The discrepancies between this model and the reality it claims to address are then attributed to particular imperfections in reality itself Most heterodox economists seize on this fact and insist that the world is characterized by imperfect competition But this only ties them to the notion of perfect competition which remains as their point of departure and base of comparison There is no imperfection without perfection In Capitalism Anwar Shaikh takes a different approach He demonstrates that most of the central propositions of economic analysis can be derived without any reference to standard devices such as hyperrationality optimization perfect competition perfect information representative agents or so called rational expectations This perspective allows him to look afresh at virtually all the elements of economic analysis the laws of demand and supply the determination of wage and profit rates technological change relative prices interest rates bond and equity prices exchange rates terms and balance of trade growth unemployment inflation and long booms culminating in recurrent general crises In every case Shaikh s innovative theory is applied to modern empirical patterns and contrasted with neoclassical Keynesian and Post Keynesian approaches to the same issues Shaikh s object of analysis is the economics of capitalism and he explores the subject in this expansive light This is how the classical economists as well as Keynes and Kalecki approached the issue Anyone interested in capitalism and economics in general can gain a wealth of knowledge from this ground breaking text HCI International 2020 - Late

Breaking Papers: Cognition, Learning and Games Constantine Stephanidis,Don Harris,Wen-Chin Li,Dylan D. Schmorrow,Cali M. Fidopiastis,Panayiotis Zaphiris,Andri Ioannou,Xiaowen Fang,Robert A. Sottolare,Jessica Schwarz,2020-10-03 This book constitutes late breaking papers from the 22nd International Conference on Human Computer Interaction HCII 2020 which was held in July 2020 The conference was planned to take place in Copenhagen Denmark but had to change to a virtual conference mode due to the COVID 19 pandemic From a total of 6326 submissions a total of 1439 papers and 238 posters have been accepted for publication in the HCII 2020 proceedings before the conference took place In addition a total of 333 papers and 144 posters are included in the volumes of the proceedings published after the conference as Late Breaking Work papers and posters These contributions address the latest research and development efforts in the field and highlight the human aspects of design and use of computing systems
