Ethiopia in Transit Pietro Toggia, Abebe Zegeye, 2013-10-18 The writings in this edition explore historical and contemporary issues in Ethiopia as the country underwent change and celebrated its new millennium However despite the recognizance of socio economic and political changes Ethiopia still faces enduring problems and challenges to its stability and continuity The political past haunts the country while it is facing the future with optimism and hope The contributors in this edition examine historical and contemporaneous issues with different lenses they investigate the multiplicity and complexity of the contradictions that define traditional and modern Ethiopia The contributions highlight the significance of the instability dislocation conflict and transformation inherent in any society None of these writings however celebrate the forces that create the conflict they are cautious not to glorify the present and romanticize the past On the contrary they seek to contextualize the challenges which the country faces with a view to open a dialogue not exclusively among Ethiopians but with scholars and social activists in the rest of Africa as well as the international community The contributions cover and examine such important topics as historiography political power and legitimacy ideology and radical views knowledge transmission and modernity emigration and the Ethiopian Diaspora ethnic and linguistic identity patriarchy and feminist discourses in a traditional society public policies and economic development traditional and modern art and culture and neo liberalism and globalization This book was published as a special issue of African Identities

The Making of Elite Women Tanja Müller,2021-11-29 This book is a thorough study about the upcoming of elite women in Eritrea encompassing the time of the armed struggle for liberation as well as its aftermath up to the tenth anniversary of Eritrean independence in 2001 and beyond It is a multi disciplinary study combining a comprehensive analysis of Eritrean history society and political developments with extensive case study research into the lives of different groups of elite women Modernisation processes created by the Eritrean revolution fostered an environment in which women are regarded as equal and encouraged to occupy positions of leadership At the same time the revolution s hegemonic ideology does not envisage women opting out of its version of modernity thus new avenues open up only for those who subscribe to the revolution s narrative of progress Furthermore it is argued that while the Eritrean revolution played a decisive role in opening up possibilities for women s emancipation a failure to implement democratic structures of governance puts the revolution s societal achievements at risk its legacy might well rest with possibilities of personal liberation in individual lives
