Barbara Kingsolver's World Linda Wagner-Martin, 2024-05-16 A revised edition of Linda Wagner Martin s comprehensive study of the novels stories essays and poetry of American author Barbara Kingsolver Now updated so that coverage runs from Kingsolver s first novel The Bean Trees through to her most recent Demon Copperhead Author of the only biography of Barbara Kingsolver and of a reader s guide to The Poisonwood Bible Wagner Martin has become the leading authority on this Pulitzer prize wining author Here she covers every work in Kingsolver s oeuvre emphasizing the writer's blend of the scientific method in which she was formally trained with her convincing understanding of the human characters that fill her books. What Kingsolver achieves throughout all her writing is a seamless blending of the various parts of human existence. She melds important themes through parts and pieces of the natural world: the African snakes, the monarch butterflies, the coyotes in Deanna Wolfe's existence. Repeatedly, Kingsolver writes to create both characters and the characters' worlds, bringing all these pieces into masterful and whole realities. This edition includes two new chapters: one on her 2018 novel Unsheltered and the second on her 2022 novel Demon Copperhead and is the first study of Kingsolver to publish since she was awarded the Pulitzer Prize for Fiction in 2023.

Rhetorics of Religion in American Fiction Liliana M. Naydan, 2016-05-23. Rhetorics of Religion in American Fiction considers the way in which contemporary American authors address the subject of belief in the post-9/11 Age of Terror. Naydan suggests that after 9/11, fiction by Mohsin Hamid, Laila Halaby, Philip Roth, Don DeLillo, John Updike, and Barbara Kingsolver dramatizes and works to resolve impasses that exist between believers of different kinds at the extremes. These impasses emerge out of the religious paradox that shapes America as simultaneously theocratic and secular and they exist for instance between liberals and fundamentalists, between liberals and certain evangelicals, between fundamentalists and artists, and between fundamentalists of different varieties. Ultimately, Naydan argues that these authors function as literary theologians of sorts and forge a relevant space beyond or between extremes. They fashion faith or lack thereof as hybridized and hence as a negotiation among secularism, atheism, faith, fundamentalism, and fanaticism. In so doing, they invite their readers into contemplations of religious difference and new ways of memorializing 9/11.

Beyond Safety Emily Johansen, 2021-09-09 Beyond Safety argues that concerns about the ethical impossibility of individual safety in the face of risks with increasingly obvious global consequences alters representations of neoliberal contemporary life As the climate crises in the Caribbean and Australia ongoing European refugee and American border crises and most recently anxieties about Coronavirus illustrate contemporary life is characterized by global connections that produce and reflect precarious outcomes and dangers The ability to ignore risk or shift it to others underscores the fact that it is mitigable for particular segments of society while inescapable for others Emily Johansen investigates depictions of global danger and safety in contemporary transnational fictional and popular texts those characterized by a narrative or representational emphasis on border crossing and global interdependences She demonstrates how these texts use risk to question and re imagine the norms and practices of contemporary global citizenship Beyond Safety thus brings together three of the central keywords of contemporary literary criticism of the last ten years cosmopolitanism precarity neoliberalism and shows how their intersection allows for a fuller conception of contemporary life and imagines a new global future
