

Abstract Keywords: depression, mood, mood disorder, mood disorder, mood disorder

Management's role may vary in different social contexts as societal structures adapt to changes in social structure. For example, in a highly structured society, management may have a more significant role in determining the direction of the organization. In a more fluid society, management may have a more limited role, focusing on providing guidance and support rather than direct control.

These incidents they speak of involved extremely aggressive behavior on the part of the crowd and individuals. These incidents involved the fact of extreme overcrowding, together with inadequate sanitary conditions, and the fact that the management of the stadium was not able to control the situation. As a result, the fact of overcrowding was a major factor in the incidents.
