Hotel Rwanda Movie Discussion Questions Answers:

Moral Theory at the Movies Dean Kowalski, 2011-12-08 Moral Theory at the Movies provides students with a wonderfully approachable introduction to ethics. The book incorporates film summaries and study questions to draw students into ethical theory and then pairs them with classical philosophical texts. The students see how moral theories, dilemmas, and questions are represented in the given films and learn to apply these theories to the world they live in. There are 36 films and a dozen readings including Thank you for Smoking, Plato's Gorgias, John Stuart Mill's Utilitarianism, Hotel Rwanda, Plato's Republic, and Horton Hears a Who! Topics cover a wide variety of ethical theories including ethical subjectivism, moral relativism, ethical theory, and virtue ethics. Moral Theory at the Movies will appeal to students and help them think about how philosophy is relevant today.

A Vision of Justice Susan Crawford Sullivan, Ron Pagnucco, 2014-04-28 A Vision of Justice: Engaging Catholic Social Teaching on the College Campus draws together the insights of social scientists, historians, and theologians in order to introduce readers to central topics in Catholic Social Teaching and to provide concrete examples of how it is being put into action by colleges and college students. The authors bring their disciplinary backgrounds and knowledge of Catholic Social Teaching to the exploration of the issues, making the book suitable for use in a wide range of courses and settings. Discussion questions at the end of each chapter help readers to think about issues raised in the essays and to think creatively about Catholic Social Teaching in an ever-changing world. The authors invite readers to join them in engaging contemporary thought and experience in the light of Catholic Social Teaching and the college campus.

Teaching for Peace and Social Justice in Myanmar Mary Shepard Wong, 2022-06-02 Bringing together scholars and educators based in Myanmar, the USA, the UK, Denmark, and Thailand, this book presents new perspectives and research on the struggle for social justice and peace in Myanmar at this critical juncture. It shows how actors from diverse backgrounds and regions of Myanmar are drawing from their identities, evoking their agency, and using critical pedagogy to advance social justice and peace. The chapters provide the compelling life stories of the authors, specific examples of what they are doing, and insights of how their work might be applied to other contexts. The topics discussed include addressing structural violence, peace curriculum development, identity-based conflict, teaching the history of the country, promoting inclusion, civic education, critical pedagogy, teacher agency, and agendas of research funding for peacebuilding. The foreword and afterword, written by well-known scholars of Myanmar, address the relevance and importance of the book vis-à-vis the current social and political crisis following the February 2021 military coup.

Emerging Evangelicals James S. Bielo, 2011-10 The Emerging Church movement developed in the mid 1990s among primarily white urban middle class pastors and laity who were disenchanted with America's conservative Evangelical sub culture It is a response to the increasing divide between conservative Evangelicals and concerned critics who strongly oppose what they consider overly slick corporate and consumerist versions of faith A core feature of their response is a challenge to traditional congregational models often focusing on new church plants and creating networks of related house churches Drawing on three years of ethnographic fieldwork James S Bielo explores the impact of the Emerging Church movement on American Evangelicals He combines ethnographic analysis with discussions of the movement's history discursive contours defining practices cultural logics and contentious interactions with conservative Evangelical critics to rethink the boundaries of Evangelical as a category Ultimately Bielo makes a novel contribution to our understanding of the important changes at work among American Protestants and illuminates how Emerging Evangelicals interact with the cultural conditions of modernity late modernity and visions of postmodern Christianity The Poor Will Be Glad Peter Greer, Phil Smith, 2009-10-20 This eminently practical book challenges the church to shift tactics in the battle against spiritual and physical poverty and equips ordinary Christians to translate their compassion into thoughtful action Authors Peter Greer and Phil Smith examine the pitfalls of traditional approaches to reducing poverty Then through real life stories and insight born of personal experience in serving the poor they outline a new model of economic development based on proven solutions for effectively reducing poverty They demonstrate how microfinance and employment based solutions free people from the cycle of dependency helping them regain their dignity and provide for their families Blending passion with practicality they show readers who share God's heart for the poor how to reorient their efforts from giving handouts to offering a hand up paving the way for local initiative and ownership By highlighting poverty fighting methods for small groups and churches along with workable steps for individuals to pursue The Poor Will Be Glad sounds a compelling call to carry God's justice, mercy and compassion to the hurting people of this world Producing for TV and New Media Cathrine Kellison, 2012-09-10 Producing for TV and New Media provides a comprehensive look at the role of the Producer in television and new media. At the core of every media project there is a Producer who provides a wide array of creative, technical, financial and interpersonal skills. Written especially for new and aspiring producers, this book looks at both the Big Picture and the essential details of this demanding and exhilarating profession. A series of interviews with seasoned TV producers who share their real world professional practices provides rich insight into the complex billion dollar industries of television and new media. This type of practical insight is not to be found in other books on producing. This new edition now covers striking developments in new media delivery systems, the expansion of the global marketplace of media content.
