

You don't feel like playing ten thousand questions with your parents tonight, but you do need to put something into your stomach. Pancake-O-Rama is just down the street, and you have no doubt that a steaming plate of pancakes, eggs, and bacon will cure all that ails you.

You pull up a stool at the fifties style counter and look around. The restaurant is dead this early in the evening, but it always fills up with stoned teenagers and drunks from a nearby club, The HotBox, as the night wears on. You glance up to find a waitress holding out a menu. You haven't seen her here before and she's one that you would remember. She's young and pretty with a scattering of freckles across her nose. Her long brunette hair is pinned into a sloppy ponytail. Her appearance suggests innocence, but the way she's slowly tonguing a wad of gum while she stares at you with her big green eyes suggests something else entirely. Or are you only imagining that?

You wave the menu away and order your usual with a cup of regular.

She returns with a pot of coffee and as she concentrates on pouring you a cup you ask what her name is. She starts to answer but the pot dips in her hand and coffee spills into your lap. Ouch!

"Oh gosh!" the waitress cries. "I'm so sorry. I'm new here. I'm still getting the hang of it!"

Before you can stop her, she's on her knees beside you, busily wiping at your crotch with a towel. It's a situation you could definitely get used to. But then the impromptu massage is over, and she disappears, only to return once again with a pile of pancakes and a carafe of syrup.

"These are on me," she says apologetically. "My name's Cassidy."

She leaves you to eat and as you do, you ponder your next move. You were thinking that you'd like to check out The HotBox tonight, but maybe it would be interesting to stay and chat up Cassidy first.

If you stay at Pancake-O-Rama to talk to Cassidy, turn to page 14.

If you finish your dinner, leave Cassidy a fat tip, and head over to The HotBox, turn to page 64.
