Comprehensive coverage of critical issues related to information science and technology HSA Heritage Auctions Rare Books Auction Catalog #6030 James Gannon, 2009-09 The politics of Jean Genet's late theatre Carl Lavery, 2017-10-03 Jean Genet and the politics of theatre is the first publication to situate the politics of Genet's theatre within the social spatial and political contexts of France in the 1950s and 1960s The book's innovative approach departs significantly from existing scholarship on Genet Where scholars have tended to bracket Genet as either an absurdist ritualistic or more recently a resistant playwright this study argues that his theory and practice of political theatre have more in common with the affirmative ideas of thinkers such as Henri Lefebvre Jacques Rancière and Alain Badiou By doing so the monograph positions Genet as a revolutionary playwright interested in producing progressive forms of democracy This original and interdisciplinary reading of Genet's late work will be of interest to students and practitioners of Theatre as well as those interested in French and History Soviet Union In The Context Of The Nobel Prize: Facts, Documents, Thoughts And Commentaries Abram Moiseevich Blokh, 2021-12-06 The result of meticulous research by Professor Abram Blokh this book presents facts documents thoughts and comments on the system of the Nobel Prize awards to Russian and Soviet scientists It provides a comprehensive overview of the relationship between the ideas expressed by the Nobel Foundation and those expressed by the autocratic and totalitarian regimes in Russia and the ex Soviet Union during the 20th century who had the same attitude of revulsion toward the intellectual and humanistic values represented by the Nobel Prizes To do his research the author had access to the declassified documents in the archives of the Nobel Foundation for many years Also included in the book are new materials obtained and developed by the author after the publication of the first two editions in Russian This additional information is from the archives of the Soviet Ministry of Foreign Affairs the Russian Academy of Sciences the Soviet Writers Union et al in Moscow and St Petersburg These documents shed new light on the difficulties encountered during the attempts to integrate Russian and Soviet science into the world's intellectual community This book would be of utmost interest to those who are interested in the history of science in Russia and the ex Soviet Union related to the Nobel Prize Demystifying Kashmir Behera, Behera Navnita Chadha, 2007 There is No Me Without You Melissa Fay Greene, 2008-12-12 Two time National Book Award nominee Melissa Fay Greene puts a human face on the African AIDS crisis with this powerful story of one woman working to save her country's children After losing her husband and daughter Haregewoin Teferra an Ethiopian woman of modest means opened her home to some of the thousands of children in Addis Ababa who have been left as orphans There Is No Me Without You is the story of how Haregewoin transformed her home into an orphanage and day care center and began facilitating adoptions to homes all over the world written by a star of literary nonfiction who is herself an adoptive parent At heart it is a book about children and parents wherever they may be however

Inside the Red Box Patrick McEachern, 2010-12-21 North Korea's institutional politics defy traditional political models making the country's actions seem surprising or confusing when in fact they often conform to the regime's own logic Drawing on recent materials such as North Korean speeches commentaries and articles Patrick McEachern a specialist on North Korean affairs reveals how the state's political institutions debate policy and inform and execute strategic level decisions Many scholars dismiss Kim Jong Il's regime as a one man dictatorship calling him the last totalitarian leader but McEachern identifies three major institutions that help maintain regime continuity the cabinet the military and the party These groups hold different institutional policy platforms and debate high level policy options both before and after Kim and his senior leadership make their final call This method of rule may challenge expectations but North Korea does not follow a classically totalitarian personalistic or corporatist model Rather than being monolithic McEachern argues the regime emerging from the crises of the 1990s rules differently today than it did under Kim's father Kim Il Sung The son is less powerful and pits institutions against one another in a strategy of divide and rule His leadership is fundamentally different it is post totalitarian Authority may be centralized but power remains diffuse McEachern maps this process in great detail supplying vital perspective on North Korea's reactive policy choices which continue to bewilder the West The Making of the Modern Mediterranean Judith E.
