United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Agriculture and Forestry, 1975 Poverty Margot Young, Susan Boyd, Gwen Brodsky, Shelagh Day, 2011-11-01 Recent years have seen the retrenchment of Canadian social programs and the restructuring of the welfare state along neo liberal lines Social programs at both the federal and the provincial levels have been cut back eliminated or recast in exclusionary and punitive forms Poverty Rights Social Citizenship and Legal Activism responds to these changes by examining the ideas and practices of human rights citizenship legislation and institution building that are crucial to addressing poverty in this country The essays in this volume investigate current trends in social political and legal anti poverty activism They challenge prevailing assumptions about the role of governments and the methods of accountability in the field of social and economic justice Through their analysis of rights advocacy and the interconnectedness of law and politics the contributors also demonstrate that the fight for social and economic justice is vibrant and of critical importance Ohio Agricultural Statistics and Ohio Department of Agriculture Annual Report Ohio Agricultural Statistics Service, 1985 The Informal and Underground Economy of the South Texas Border Chad Richardson, Michael J. Pisani, 2012-11-15

Much has been debated about the presence of undocumented workers along the South Texas border but these debates often overlook the more complete dimension the region s longstanding undocumented economies as a whole Borderlands commerce that evades government scrutiny can be categorized into informal economies the unreported exchange of legal goods and services or underground economies criminal economic activities that obviously occur without government oversight Examining long term study observation and participation in the border region with the assistance of hundreds of locally embedded informants The Informal and Underground Economy of the South Texas Border presents unique insights into the causes and ramifications of these economic channels The third volume in UT Pan American s Borderlife Project this eye opening investigation draws on vivid ethnographic interviews bolstered by decades of supplemental data to reveal a culture where divided loyalties paired with a lack of access to protection under the law and other forms of state sponsored recourse have given rise to social spectra that often defy stereotypes A cornerstone of the authors findings is that these economic activities increase when citizens perceive the state s intervention as illegitimate whether in the form of fees taxes or regulation From living conditions in the impoverished colonias to President Felipe Calder n s futile attempts to eradicate police corruption in Mexico this book is a riveting portrait of benefit versus risk in the wake of a no man s land legacy Monthly Catalogue, United States Public Documents ,1986 Constructing Crime Janet Mosher,Joan Brockman,2010-05-10 Constructing Crime examines the central question Why do we define and enforce particular behaviours as crimes and target particular individuals as criminals To answer this question contributors interrogate notions of crime processes of criminalization and the deployment of the concept of crime in five radically different sites the enforcement of fraud against welfare recipients and physicians the enforcement of laws against Aboriginal harvesting practices the perceptions of incivilities or disorder in public housing projects and the selective criminalization of gambling By demonstrating that how crime is defined and enforced is connected to social location and status these interdisciplinary case studies and an afterword by Marie Andr e Bertrand challenge us to consider just who is rendered criminal and why This timely volume will appeal to policy makers and students and practitioners of law criminology and sociology
