Stories that Make History The Research Team of the War, Women's Human Rights Center, 2020-08-24 What would it be like if your existence was erased for half a century This is the reality for the Korean comfort girls women whose lives had been erased since the time of the expansion of comfort stations by the Japanese military in 1937 This book is an effort to bring these women back to life and to make their voices experiences and memories available to future generations The experiences of Korean comfort girls women are a paradigmatic example of how military sexual violence can obliterate the dignity of women and shame them into nonexistence This book examines how the turning of their innocence into inadequacy actively by the Japanese government and passively by the Korean government and its people and also by the world compounded their long miserable suffering for half a century until Kim Hak sun broke the silence in 1991 with the support of Korean activists The relentless and courageous efforts of Korean comfort girls women and activists on the road to healing and justice are shared here These efforts made it possible for us to hear their horrific stories which are embedded with numerous and intense traumas allowing them to unfold and be shared on the road to justice and healing

My Miracle Evelyn Stewart, 2006-09 I too was a victim of abuse I thought I had to endure the suffering Bless your good works and your caring heart Francine internationally acclaimed poet <http://poetryemotion.com> This isn't the same ol same ol story of a woman raised with incest in her background and an alcoholic parent to contend with It's the story of a woman born into a loving family who suffered at the hands of a man who lured into his web then spent the next thirty years of their life attempting to destroy her He only made her stronger It's the story of our culture with a rich texture of the 40s 50s and 60s woven into the fabric of the author's astounding words Spellbinding with a hint of John Steinbeck on every page Marjorie Cox public speaker I live every day of my life grateful to have survived what so many young women haven't survived Maybe I had to tough it out in order to pass along some of my history to those who feel that they and they alone are in such abusive situations that no one will ever understand My message to them is to believe in miracles And to believe in yourself With God all things are possible I'm living proof of the truth of that statement Evelyn Fort Stewart
