

SHARON SHAW

When I was a young girl, I was always drawn to the stories of angels. I was fascinated by the idea of beings who were both divine and human, who could fly and speak to God. I was especially drawn to the story of the Angel of the Lord, who appeared to the shepherds in the manger and to the women at the tomb. I was always wondering what it would be like to be an angel, to have the power and the knowledge of the divine, and to be able to help people in need. I was always wondering what it would be like to be an angel, to have the power and the knowledge of the divine, and to be able to help people in need.
