Being Muslim in Central Asia ,2018-01-03 This volume explores the changing place of Islam in contemporary Central Asia understanding religion as a societal shaper a roadmap for navigating quickly evolving social and cultural values Islam can take on multiple colors and identities from a purely transcendental faith in God to a cauldron of ideological ferment for political ideology via diverse culture community and history based phenomena The volumes discusses what it means to be a Muslim in today s Central Asia by looking at both historical and sociological features investigates the relationship between Islam politics and the state the changing role of Islam in terms of societal values and the issue of female attire as a public debate Contributors include Aur lie Biard Tim Epkenhans Nurgul Esenamanova Azamat Junisbai Barbara Junisbai Marlene Laruelle Marantha Miles Emil Nasritdinov Shahnoza Nozimova Yaacov Ro i Wendell Schwab Manja Stephan Emmrich Rano Turaeva Alon Wainer Alexander Wolters Galina M Yemelianova Baurzhan Zhussupov Concentrate Questions and Answers Tort Law Karen Dyer,Anil Balan,2022 Concentrate Q the content is exceptional Wendy Chinenye Akaiigwe London Metropolitan University Take it online The 2nd edition is available in paperback or e book Visit www.oup.com/lawrevision for multimedia resources to help you with revision and assessment Nordic Food Transitions Jesper Manniche,Bjornar Saether,2018-12-07 The ambition of the book is to investigate a possible transition in the markets for food in the Nordic countries Six chapters from various disciplinary traditions study change and innovation within the food sectors in Denmark Sweden and Norway while an introductory chapter discusses the findings of these analyses Specialty food has established a strong position within product categories such as craft beer in Denmark and organic food in Sweden but has failed to do so in others The emergence of markets for specialty foods have been promoted by top down policy initiatives and bottom up entrepreneurial efforts Far from providing the only relevant platform for food transition and innovation the New Nordic Food manifesto has helped creating a territorialized action space for networks of food producers and distributors promoting diversity in local food and rural development Some of the specialty food networks have succeeded in re scaling their operations from a local to a national market Today even large retailers and food processing companies have to pay notice to the ongoing changes among consumers There is however a paradoxical constraint in a transition towards specialty food A large scale transition would imply that producers and consumers abandon precisely what constitute them their exclusiveness The chapters were originally published in a special issue of European Planning Studies

Corporate Governance in Central Europe and Russia Maria Aluchna, Samuel O. Idowu, Irina Tkachenko, 2020-03-04 This book examines corporate governance through a holistic lens that integrates financial social and environmental goals e g increasing transparency and disclosure In addition it investigates the theoretical assumptions guiding the current corporate governance practices adopted by companies in Central Europe and Russia The book presents a dynamic study on the evolution of corporate governance systems which were practically non existent just 30 years ago In turn it addresses criticism leveled at corporate governance its impact on the outbreak of the financial crisis and recommendations for changes after the crisis The book employs a regional focus exploring a group of countries that have often been neglected in corporate governance research Carefully selected data and a variety of case studies prepared by leading authors from the region provide evidence to support the analysis with exclusive insights from Ride s family and partner by the ABC reporter who covered NASA during its transformation from a test pilot boys club to a more inclusive elite Sally Ride made history as the first American woman in space A member of the first astronaut class to include women she broke through a quarter century of white male fighter jocks when NASA chose her for the seventh shuttle mission cracking the celestial ceiling and inspiring several generations of women After a second flight

Ride served on the panels investigating the Challenger explosion and the Columbia disintegration that killed all aboard. In both instances she faulted NASA's rush to meet mission deadlines and its organizational failures. She cofounded a company promoting science and education for children especially girls. Sherr also writes about Ride's scrupulously guarded personal life she kept her sexual orientation private with exclusive access to Ride's partner her former husband her family and countless friends and colleagues. Sherr draws from Ride's diaries files and letters. This is a rich biography of a fascinating woman whose life intersected with revolutionary social and scientific changes in America. Sherr's revealing portrait is warm and admiring but unsparing. It makes this extraordinarily talented and bold woman an inspiration to millions come alive.

Equitable Compensation and Disgorgement of Profit Simone Degeling, Jason NE Varuhas, 2017-04-06 This collection of essays interrogates significant issues at the forefront of scholarship and legal practice in the field of money remedies in equity. Chapters address the contentious and developing field of equitable compensation including the nature of equitable compensation the relevant causation inquiry for equitable compensation whether notions of contribution apply to multiple agents accessorial liability the role of discretion in limiting equitable compensation which wrongs yield equitable compensation and the extent to which compensation in equity differs from money remedies at common law. Other chapters examine the remedy of disgorgement of profit and specifically the theoretical basis of that remedy its application in the context of fiduciary obligations and third party issues. A number of chapters also examine the interrelationship between loss and gain based money relief. In addressing these issues the book includes both doctrinal and theoretical perspectives and brings together leading equity scholars and judges from across the common law world. The Routledge Handbook on Sports Law and Governance Annette Greenhow, John Wolohan, 2025-03-25 The Routledge Handbook on Sports Law and Governance provides a definitive guide to the regulation of international and national sport through the lens of both regulatory governance and legal frameworks. Over the past several decades law regulation and governance associated with international and national sport has grown exponentially aligned with professional and elite level sport development. The organisation and sophistication of international and national sporting competitions create an environment where pressures such as the sports ethic and strong incentives to win give rise to both novel problems and reoccurring themes. Exploring a wide range of perspectives across disciplines and transcending jurisdictional boundaries the handbook analyses complex international and national sports challenges. Taking a nuanced approach to traditional themes it recognises the context and sport as a regulatory domain when applying law and legal frameworks. This book is an essential resource for students and academics exploring issues in international and national sports law sports regulation and sports governance.
