provocative and timely call to action for civic minded Canadians yearning for a more competitive political system ane better government Canadians everywhere are asking what s wrong with the Conservative Party The Liberal Party of Canada has held power for 70 of the past 100 years a feat unrivaled by any other political party in the Western hemisphere This dominance has caused a great deal of frustration on all political fronts especially on the right In the past two years the long awaited merger of the Canadian Alliance and the Progressive Conservatives has not achieved the results many were expecting Despite the explosive revelations of the sponsorship scandal and attempts to improve his party s image Stephen Harper s Conservatives still trail in the polls In Rescuing Canada s Right the authors examine the problems facing the Conservative Party and the broader conservative movement and offer concrete solutions on how to fix them Some of the issues the book will address Why the Conservative Party and its predecessor parties have such a poor electoral record Why today s Conservative Party is not really conservative Why a new political vision is necessary to inspire Canadians and what it should be How the Liberals use public money to entrench an unhealthy reliance on the state and how the right has failed to challenge it What Canadian conservatives can learn from the American and British experiences How to build a Canadian Conservative counter culture in the media academia and the law How the right can break through to the young and to immigrants in Quebec An action plan to end Canada s democratic deficit and level the political playing field Rescuing Canada s Right will be a hard hitting and groundbreaking work that will introduce new ideas and a passionate call for change for 21st century Canada Women, Citizenship and Canadian Child Care Policy in the 1990s Vappu Tyyskä,University of Toronto. Childcare Resource and Research Unit, 2001 This report analyzes developments in Canadian child care policy in the 1990s at the federal provincial Ontario and municipal Toronto and Peel levels highlighting problems that are associated with a male model of citizenship The report discusses the child care policy process as one in which state bodies are challenged by the diverse and largely women driven child care advocacy movement First the report outlines some of the major developments of the 1990s that have created increasing hardship for women foremost among these is the diminished accessibility to child care due to stagnation of or cutbacks in the funding of child care services Connected to this is the ongoing concern among advocates for not for profit child care about a shift of services to the private and unregulated sector arguably lowering quality Also at issue are the poor and deteriorating working conditions of mostly female child care providers These considerations are intended to highlight the importance of linking social class and gender inequality in an analysis of social policy Second the report discusses the effectiveness of different strategies of child care advocacy raising some of the most persistent questions among feminists concerning political citizenship i e whether it is possible to obtain social rights for women through the state and if so what the conditions are which make it possible The report concludes by asserting that most women s and advocacy organizations are dismissed by governments as special interest groups based on their outsider status in official politics and lacking stable alliances these organizations are drawn toward political solutions that may prove palatable to governments in the short run but may undermine general claims for child care as a universal rather than a targeted service Contains a 114 references EV INNOVATION AND CHANGE IN THE HUMAN SERVICES

Ginsburg,1998-09 Based on the struggle over a Fargo North Dakota abortion clinic Contested Lives explores one of the central social conflicts of our time Both wide ranging and rich in detail it speaks not simply to the abortion issue but also to the critical role of women s political activism A new introduction addresses the events of the last decade which saw the emergence of Operation Rescue and a shift toward more violent even deadly forms of anti abortion protest Responses to this trend included government legislation a decline in clinics and doctors offering abortion services and also the formation of Common Ground an alliance bringing together activists from both sides to address shared concerns Ginsburg shows that what may have seemed an ephemeral artifact of Midwestern feminism of the 1980s actually foreshadowed unprecedented possibilities for reconciliation in one of the most entrenched conflicts of our times
