Fanon, Žižek, and the Violence of Resistance Zahi Zalloua, 2015-06-26 In a novel pairing of anti colonial theorist Frantz Fanon with Marxist Lacanian philosopher Slavoj Žižek Zahi Zalloua explores the ways both thinkers expose the violence of political structures This inventive exploration advances an anti racist critique describing how ontology operates in a racial matrix to produce some human bodies that count and others deemed not quite or non human that do not For Fanon and Žižek the violence of ontology must be met with another form of violence a revolutionary violence that delegitimizes the logic of the symbolic order and troubles its collective fantasies Whereas Fanon begins his challenge to ontology by exposing its historical linkages to Europe's destructive imperialist procedures before proceeding to stretch Marxism along with psychoanalysis to account for the crushing neo colonial situation Žižek premises his work on the refusal to accept the totality of ontology Because of these different points of intervention Fanon and Žižek together offer a powerful and multifaceted assessment of the liberal anti racist paradigm whose propensity for identity politics and aversion to class struggle silence the cry of the dispossessed and foreclose radical change Avoiding contemporary separatist temptations decoloniality and Afropessimism and breaking with a non violent sentimentalist futurology that announces more of the same Fanon and Žižek point in a different direction one that eschews identitarian thought in favor of a collective struggle for freedom and equality

Life and the Student Charles Horton Cooley, 2015-01-31 Life and the Student 1927 with a new introduction by Jonathan B Imber is a compilation of reflections commentaries and letters from other scholars that Charles Horton Cooley accumulated throughout his life The book includes personal passages on various topics within the realms of reading and writing thinking art science sociology academia religion and human nature There is no formal structure to the book except the literary sense that organizes these thoughts and observations about life It is impossible to categorize these widely ranging commentaries They include discussions of the automobile the impressionable nature of young people the claim that the question of racial superiority is still unresolved his belief that eugenicists are inconsistent in their views and more Cooley's work sought to emphasize the connection between society and the individual. He believed that the two could only be understood in relationship to each other. While researching the effects of social responses and social participation, he created the concept of the looking glass self, which is the theory that a person's sense of self grows out of interpersonal interactions and the perceptions of others. Cooley also showed that social life and the relationship between groups and communities stems from mental phenomena.

Health Informatics - E-Book Ramona Nelson, Nancy Stagers, 2016-12-08. Awarded second place in the 2017 AJN Book of the Year Awards in the Information Technology category. See how information technology intersects with health care. Health Informatics: An Interprofessional Approach, 2nd Edition, prepares you for success in today's technology-filled healthcare practice. Concise coverage includes information systems and applications such as electronic health records, clinical decision support, telehealth, ePatients, and social media tools, as well as system implementation. New to this edition are topics including data science and analytics, mHealth, principles of project management, and contract negotiations. Written by expert informatics educators Ramona Nelson and Nancy Stagers, this edition enhances the book that won a 2013 American Journal of Nursing Book of the Year award. Experts from a wide range of health disciplines cover the latest on the interprofessional aspects of informatics, a key Quality and Safety Education for Nurses (QSEN) initiative and a growing specialty area in nursing. Case studies encourage higher-level thinking about how concepts apply to real-world nursing practice. Discussion questions challenge you to think critically and to visualize the future of health informatics. Objectives, key terms, and an abstract at the beginning of each chapter provide an overview of what you will learn. Conclusion and Future Directions section at the end of each chapter describes how informatics will continue to evolve as healthcare moves to an interprofessional foundation. NEW: Updated chapters reflect the current and evolving practice of health informatics, using real-life healthcare examples to show how informatics applies to a wide range of topics and issues. NEW: mHealth chapter discusses the use of mobile technology, a new method of health delivery, especially for urban or underserved populations, and describes the changing levels of responsibility for both patients and providers. NEW: Data Science and Analytics in Healthcare chapter shows how Big Data, as well as analytics using data mining and knowledge discovery techniques, applies to healthcare. NEW: Project Management Principles chapter discusses proven project management tools and techniques for coordinating all types of health informatics-related projects. NEW: Contract Negotiations chapter describes strategic methods and tips for negotiating a contract with a healthcare IT vendor. NEW: Legal Issues chapter explains how federal regulations and accreditation processes may impact the practice of health informatics. NEW: HITECH Act chapter explains the regulations relating to health informatics in the Health Information Technology for Education and Clinical Health Act, as well as the Meaningful Use and Medicare Access, CHIP Reauthorization Act of 2015.

Islands in Geography, Law, and Literature Chiara Battisti, Sidia Fiorato, Matteo Nicolini, Thomas Perrin, 2022-04-04. This collection explores the heterogeneous places we have traditionally been taught to term islands. It stages a conversation on the very idea of island ness thus contributing to a new field of research at the crossroads of law geography literature urban planning politics arts and cultural studies The contributions to this volume discuss the notion of island ness as a device triggering the imagination triggering narratives and representations in different creative fields they explore the interactions between legal socio political and fictional approaches to remoteness and the state of insularity policy responses to both remoteness and boundaries on different scales and the insular legal framing of geographical remoteness The product of a cross disciplinary exchange on islands this edited volume will be of great interest to those working in the fields of Island Studies as well as literary studies scholars geographers and legal scholars

Hosting States and Unsettled Guests Jennifer Riggan, Amanda Poole, 2024-02-06 As wealthy countries build walls to keep migrants out countries in the Global South are celebrated for their hospitality towards refugees Hosting States and Unsettled Guests asks the question did these policies enable refugees to consider their new country home Beginning in 2016 Ethiopia promoted local integration economic opportunities and access to education for refugees in order to encourage them to stay long term rather than migrate towards Europe But by 2020 a political overhaul and the outbreak of war in Northern Ethiopia foreclosed these opportunities particularly for Eritrean refugees in Ethiopia How did Eritrean refugees envision their future in light of the discrepancy between promising policies and ongoing instability Using ethnographic interviews and participant observation with government officials NGOs and refugees in three camps in northern Ethiopia and Addis Ababa Jennifer Riggan and Amanda Poole explore refugee notions of progress care hope and futurity Caught at the intersection of teleological violence and temporal agency refugees endure the present and tenaciously produce a sense of the future even when their efforts to progress are repeatedly challenged An important read Hosting States and Unsettled Guests makes key empirical and theoretical contributions in forced migration studies East African studies anthropology and international education Riggan and Poole deftly shift the focus of refugee studies away from Europe to regions in the Global South to understand the violence of emerging forms of migration deterrence

Identity in a Secular Age Fern Elsdon-Baker, Bernard Lightman, 2020-09-15 Although historians have suggested for some time that we move away from the assumption of a necessary clash between science and religion the conflict narrative persists in contemporary discourse But why And how do we really know what people actually think about evolutionary science let alone the many and varied ways in which it might relate to individual belief In this multidisciplinary volume experts in history and philosophy of science oral history sociology of religion social psychology and science communication and public engagement look beyond two warring systems of thought They consider a far more complex multifaceted and distinctly more interesting picture of how differing groups along a spectrum of worldviews including atheistic agnostic and faith groups relate to and form the ongoing narrative of a necessary clash between evolution and faith By ascribing agency to the public from the nineteenth century to the present and across Canada and the United Kingdom this volume offers a much more nuanced analysis of people s perceptions about the relationship between evolutionary science religion and personal belief one that better elucidates the complexities not only of that relationship but of actual lived experience

CURRICULUM REFORM IN PAKISTAN Amna Afreen,2022-02-25 I have written this book in an effort to explore how the history of Pakistan has resulted in the critical problems weighing down its education system The book examines the questions Why and how has a small elite class come to rule Pakistan And how has their rule worsened the country s problems The focus will be to critically examine the elements of the Pakistani national curriculum and madrasas and their effects on Pakistani society The book represents the fusion of my experiences in Pakistan with extensive literature analysis interviews and textbook analysis This research began when I came to the United States in January 2015 through the SAR program I wanted to know the answers to profoundly unsettling questions How can a society be so intolerant that a scholar educated solely in Pakistan is disregarded and assassinated while many Western educated scholars with traditional insular thoughts are not only appreciated but flourishing I wanted to know why Pakistani elites have so much power and freedom while lower classes are profoundly oppressed Elites who barely pay taxes have been in power for generations while those that pay taxes suffer from sky high inflation The influential religious leaders mostly belong to the elite class while their followers are mostly lower class Ruling families and social classes mostly control appointed positions Do those in power not have a responsibility to speak on issues of social justice rather than limiting themselves in claiming that theirs is the only true form of Islam Why don t they work to end the disparity of quality education between classes in Pakistan Instead many elites run their own lucrative elite Islamic schools More importantly why do the ulama which literally means those who possess knowledge ilm particularly of Islam maintain a tight hierarchical system in the madrasa Islamic seminary community that rarely allows poor intelligent students to attain leadership positions Why are the ulama silent in the face of ruthless murder of and discrimination against Pakistani minorities Book Review Pakistan Educational Reforms is a major study of education in Pakistan and its national and madrasa curriculum that fosters national and religious sectarian divisions intolerance and conflicts Dr Amna Afreen documents the political socio economic and religious causes limited government funding widespread poverty and illiteracy and the poor training and performance of teachers that have produced a failed educational system at urban and rural government and religious schools madrasa and offers a series of potential solutions and reforms John L Esposito University Professor and Founding Director of The Alwaleed Center for Muslim Christian Understanding Georgetown University Teaching to Change the World Jeannie Oakes,Martin Lipton,Lauren Anderson,Jamy Stillman,2018-01-29 Teaching to Change the World is an up to the moment engaging social justice oriented introduction to education and teaching and the challenges and opportunities they present Both foundational and practical the chapters are organized around conventional topics but in a way that consistently integrates a coherent story that explains why schools are as they are Taking the position that a hopeful democratic future depends on ensuring that all students learn the text pays particular attention to inequalities associated with race social class language gender and other social categories and explores teachers role in addressing them This thoroughly revised fifth edition remains a vital introduction to the profession for a new generation of teachers who seek to become purposeful knowledgeable practitioners in our ever changing educational landscape for those teachers who see the potential for education to change the world Features and Updates of the New Edition Fully updated Chapter 1 The U S Schooling Dilemma reflects our current state of education after the 2016 U S presidential election First person observations from teachers including first year teachers continue to offer vivid authentic pictures of what teaching to change the world means and involves Additional coverage of the ongoing effects of Common Core highlights the heated public discourse around teaching and teachers and charter schools Attention to diversity and inclusion is treated as integral to all chapters woven throughout rather than tacked on as separate units Digging Deeper resources on the new companion website include concrete resources that current and future teachers can use in their classrooms Tools for Critique provides instructors and students questions prompts and activities aimed at encouraging classroom discussion and particularly engaging those students least familiar with the central tenets of social justice education

Restoring Opportunity Greg J. Duncan, Richard J. Murnane, 2014-01-01 In this landmark volume Greg J. Duncan and Richard J. Murnane lay out a meticulously researched case showing how in a time of spiraling inequality strategically targeted interventions and supports can help schools significantly improve the life chances of low income children. The authors offer a brilliant synthesis of recent research on inequality and its effects on families, children, and schools. They describe the interplay of social and economic factors that has made it increasingly hard for schools to counteract the effects of inequality and that has created a widening wedge between low and high income students. Restoring Opportunity provides detailed portraits of proven initiatives that are transforming the lives of low income children from prekindergarten through high school. All of these programs are research tested and have demonstrated sustained effectiveness over time and at significant scale. Together they offer a powerful vision of what good instruction in effective schools can look like. The authors conclude by outlining the elements of a new agenda for education reform. Restoring Opportunity is a crowning contribution from these two leading economists in the field of education and a passionate call to action on behalf of the young people on whom our nation's future depends.
