Lord of the Flies – chapter 5 – “Dead from Air”

Throughout our study of Lord of the Flies, you will pay particular attention to four central ideas upon which William Golding focuses. As you read and annotate the novel, be aware of these topics and mark passages whenever you notice that they come up, both directly and indirectly.

- RULE/ORDER: Consider the importance of rules and order in the island society and what happens in its absence.
- HUMAN NATURE: Consider Golding's position on how humans instinctively behave in ways that are good, evil, and everything in between.
- LEADERSHIP: Consider the most important and the most effective qualities in a leader.
- OBEDIENCE: Consider the obligations we have as humans as the events unfold on the island. Consider how the roles of perpetrator, victim, bystander, and rescuer can be applied to the characters on the island.

Stylistic Devices

Make marginal notes identifying/explaining the following stylistic devices as you see them.

- Characterization: analysis of characters based upon what they do, say, think and what others say and think about them.
 - Major characters to note: Ralph, Piggy, Jack, Simon
 - Other characters to note in this chapter: Sam, Mr. Eric,
- Symbolism: when something stands for something else.
 - Major symbols to note: conch shell, fire, Piggy's glasses, beadle
- Foreshadowing: hint of what is going to happen later in the story
- Irony: words that mean exact opposite of literal or normal meaning.
 - Dramatic contrast between what a character knows about events and what reader knows
 - Situational contrast between what the reader expects and what actually happens
 - Verbal: writer says one thing but really means something completely different

Questions for Understanding – Write the numbers of the questions below in the margin of the text next to the corresponding information. Be sure that your annotations make it clear to you (and me) why you underlined what you did.

1. Read the first two pages (55-57) very carefully. Try to figure out what's going on in the sky and what appears on the island. Why is this important? What connections can you make between what's happening on the island and what's happening in the outside world?
2. Underline and write notes about the interactions between Jack and Ralph. What is their relationship evolved at this point in the novel? How do they test each other? And why? Be sure to consider this question all the way through the chapter.
3. Underline and write notes as the boys circle to deal with the beast. How do they react, and what do they say? Look at the differences in the way Ralph approaches the subject of the beast, and the way Jack approaches the subject of the beast. What is revealed about the boys, and their evolution on the island?
4. Underline and write notes about Simon's thoughts about reactions to the beast. Repeat those thoughts about reactions to the beast to ideas in chapter 5.
5. Underline and write notes about the images of the other side of the island, "Castle Rock". Consider the symbolic significance of this setting and compare/contrast descriptions of the setting here, with those described on the other side of the island where the boys live. Consider how the imagery might reveal a change, evolution in the story.
6. Underline and write notes about the priorities of Ralph versus those of Jack. What does each boy think is most important and why? Who do the boys go with at the end of the chapter? Why do you think that is?
7. Make some predictions about what you think will happen next.
