Tory Conklin,2012-10-24 The stories in this book are from soldiers who once served in Vietnam and who have contacted me via the world of spirit Their stories are filled with the dreams of young men who grew into adults all too quickly in a land not their own They speak of the bond between soldiers the brotherhood that stands the test of time and distance the fear they lived with each day how they wrote letters that would be sent to their families if they were killed and the simple things they came to take for granted Some speak of their love of Vietnam and its people And many of them convey their last few hours on the earthly plane Jeri Tory Conklin a gifted intuitive archaeologist and investigative author again lifts the veil between the visible and invisible world this time to give us an inside perspective on veteran experiences during the Vietnam War An eye opening inspirational book Patricia Johnston professor of anthropology owner grief coach at Purple Lotus Coaching <http://purplelotuscoaching.com> Seeking answers to Why is there no peace comes to us all when we send a loved one or venture into the path of war Living without closure bids us to seek out those with The Gift of sight into the world of spirit I have found closure within these pages Your eyes will be opened if you have lost a loved one to death on a battlefield Pamela Cannataro military dependent and Vietnam veterans widow The Triumph and Trade of Egyptian Objects in Rome Stephanie Pearson,2021-04-06 From gleaming hardstone statues to bright frescoes the unexpected and often spectacular Egyptian objects discovered in Roman Italy have long presented an interpretive challenge How they shaped and were shaped by religion politics and identity formation has now been well researched But one crucial function of these objects remains to be explored their role as precious goods in a collector s economy The Romans imported and recreated Egyptian goods in the most opulent materials available gold gems expensive wood ivory luxurious textiles and displayed them like true treasures This is due in part to the way Romans encountered these items as argued in this book first as dazzling spolia from the war against Cleopatra then as costly wares exchanged over the expanding Roman trade routes In this respect Romans treated Egyptian art surprisingly similarly to Greek art By examining the concrete mechanisms through which Egyptian objects were acquired and displayed in Rome this book offers a new understanding of this impressive material at the crossroads of Hellenistic Roman and Egyptian culture The Egyptian Elite as Roman Citizens Giorgia Cafici,2021-07-19 In The Egyptian Elite as Roman Citizens Giorgia Cafici offers the analysis of private male portrait sculptures as attested in Egypt between the end of the Ptolemaic and the beginning of the Roman Period Ptolemaic Early Roman portraits are examined using a combination of detailed stylistic evaluation philological analysis of the inscriptions and historical and prosopographical investigation of the individuals portrayed The emergence of this type of sculpture has been contextualised both geographically and chronologically as it belongs to a wider Mediterranean horizon The analysis has revealed that eminent members of the Egyptian elite decided to be represented in an innovative way echoing the portraits of eminent Romans of the Late Republic whose identity was surely known in Egypt
