MUNDAY September 23d, 1734.

A second Continuation of the Letter from Middletown.

PRay (says the Councillor very gravely) if a Nullity of Laws is to be inferred from the Governours voting in Council, what will become of the Support of Government? Our Governours (its said) have always done so, and believe they do so in the Neighbouring Governments of York and Pennsylvania, &c. and I never heard that the Councils (whose Business it was) either there or here, ever opposed the Governour's Sitting and Acting in Council: And, Sir, do you consider the dangerous Consequence of a Nullity of Laws? The Support of Government, answered the Lawyer, is but temporary, and in a little Time will expire by its own Limitation: But were it perpetual, I can't understand how a Government is supported by breaking the Constitution of it; that seems a Contradiction in Terms, and like Sboaring up a House by pulling of it down. But if you mean by the Support of the Government, the Support of the Governour and of you Officers, I see no Reason why that should be at the Expence of the Constitution, and Burdens laid upon the Subject in a manner not warranted by Law; when it can be done with as much Ease the Right Way. — The Council (it is true) are more immediately concerned in Opposing this Voting, because the Indignity is more immediately offered to them: But why the Assembly should not be as much concerned in supporting the Constitution, and defending any Attack made upon it, I cannot see; since the People they represent are in General I see the Journals of the Assembly lying there, search them, you will find an Assembly remonstrating against the mad Practices of a Governour and the vile Implements of his Oppression; upon which he was recalled. Look a little farther, and under the Administration of General Hunter (who was a Man as tenacious of Power and knew as well how to use it as most Men) you will find the Assembly sending their Bills up to the Council, and in particular to the President of the Council; all this he admitted, and never once attempted to dispossess the Messengers that brought them, on the Pretence that they ought to have been delivered to him: If he had; That Assembly consisting of Members who had no private left Handed Views, were not so weak and low Spirited as to suffer such an Attempt to pass without Remarking, in a Manner suitable to the Violence of such a Conduct. — You, Sir, may know (tho' I do not) what has been always done by our former Governours: Some of them have had Impudence enough to call every Opposition to their unwarrantable and extravagant Actions, and the dispicable Wretches they employed to promote their Purposes, a Resistance and Opposition of the Royal Prerogatives of the Crown: And, Sir, (with Submission) I think their Practices ought never among sober and free Men to be alledged as Presidents fit to follow. — What the Governours of the neighbouring Governments of New-York, Pennsylvania, &c. have done, I neither do, nor am concerned to know, any more than they are with what our Governours do or have done here: The Constitution of their Governments may be different from ours; and what is unlawful here, may be lawful there for ought I know. I am not concerned and meddle not with them or any of them; nor ought they or any of them to meddle with us, it is of Jersey I speak; and of Jersey I would be understood to speak; and of no other Place whatsoever. As to your Nullity of Laws, I take that to be a Sort of Bug.

David Nathaniel Gellman,2006 David N Gellman has written the most complete study to date of the abolition of slavery in New York State Focusing on public opinion he shows New Yorkers engaged in vigorous debates and determined activism during the final decades of the eighteenth century as they grappled with the possibility of freeing the state s black population In 1799 gradual emancipation in New York began a profound event Gellman argues It helped move an entire region of the country toward a historically rare slaveless democracy creating a wedge in the United States that would ultimately lead to the Civil War Gellman presents a comprehensive examination of the reasons for and timing of New York s dismantling of slavery It was the northern state with the greatest number of slaves more than 20 000 in 1790 Newspapers pamphlets legislative journals and organizational records reveal how whites and blacks citizens and slaves activists and politicians responded to the changing ideologies and evolving political landscape of the early national period and concluded that slavery did not fit with their state s emerging identity Support for the institution atrophied and eventually the preponderance of New York s political leaders endorsed gradual abolition The first book on its subject Emancipating New York provides a fascinating narrative of citizenry addressing longstanding injustices central to some of the greatest traumas of American history The debate within the New York public sphere over abolition proved a pivotal contest in the unraveling of worldwide slavery Gellman shows and set the stage for intense political conflicts in the nineteenth century BOOK JACKET
