The Interdependence of Teaching and Learning Bryant Griffith, Douglas J. Loveless, 2013-03-01 The varied chapters of this book seek to capture the complexities of teaching and learning in today's schools and they share an interest in exploring the influences of knowledge construction in the moment and over time Teaching and learning are human processes interrelated and dynamic We assembled this collection to unpack what it means to teach and to learn teasing out some of the implications and challenges of such complicated educational processes that are often misconstrued as causal or linear As educators currently residing in the United States we find this a particularly pressing agenda given the current focus on common core standards and reducing teaching and learning to conceptual and pedagogical step by step procedures Our primary concern in putting together this book was to provide a conceptual and political foundation from which to construct and defend understandings and practices of teaching and learning that embody the complexity of educational endeavors and relationships The isolation of teaching from learning and the othering of both teachers and students one from the other suggests that knowledge is synonymous with information This book challenges such assumptions The project underlying this text can be seen as a means of rethinking how teachers and students perspectives of practice and curriculum influence what learning opportunities are provided to students Chapters written by established and new thinkers in the field of education demonstrate the ways in which teachers reformulate relationships between teaching and learning in school settings Our second objective is to examine local constructions of knowledge over time and how those constructions are consequential for teacher and student learning By examining patterns of practice and processes of knowledge construction in elementary secondary and undergraduate classrooms the authors of these chapters lay a foundation for examining commonalities and differences in the construction of knowledge and practices across educational levels disciplines and in school and out of school settings     Mapping Comprehensive Units to the ELA Common Core Standards, K-5 Kathy Tuchman Glass, 2012-04-26 Consultant and former teacher Glass helps K-5 teachers make sense of the new Common Core State Standards in English language arts ELA and presents numerous classroom activities differentiation ideas and rubrics She introduces a process for developing a unit of study using the ELA Common Core Standards and includes a template with each key component explained in detail There is also a lesson design template and sample lessons using the template The website provides reproducibles for classroom use Annotation 2012 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com     Problem-Based Learning in Teacher Education Margot Filipenko, Jo-Anne Naslund, 2015-12-15 This book offers readers a comprehensive understanding of problem based learning PBL in teacher education Featuring the perspectives of experienced teacher educators it details the strengths of problem based learning pedagogy as well as identifies continuing challenges and future possibilities The book explains the goals content processes and strategies of a successful and longstanding problem based learning teacher education program at the University of British Columbia It features contributions from tutors faculty school administrators faculty advisors school advisors librarians and pre-service teachers who share their perspectives about problem based learning as a robust and exciting approach for teaching and learning Overall the contributors to the book discuss the history of the program its implementation and future directions In the process readers discover the ways that problem based learning has succeeded in preparing educators to teach diverse learners and acquire the professional dispositions necessary for teaching in today's multilingual multicultural classrooms     Curriculum Mapping Kathy Tuchman Glass, 2006-12-07 This resource provides a user friendly process for creating a curriculum year overview that meets standards Includes developed curriculum maps blank templates and more     Thematic Units in Teaching English and the Humanities Sylvia Spann, Mary Beth Culp, 1977     Reading Workshop Lesson Plan on Character Traits and Social Emotional Learning Stella Tartis, 2020-11-17 Reading Workshop Lesson Plan on Character Traits and Social Emotional Learning that details a reading lesson rubric with common core standards for a subsequent writing assignment points     Common Core Curriculum Maps in English Language Arts, Grades K-5 Great Minds, 2011-10-19 The first books to present specific guidance for teaching the Common Core State Standards Forty three states plus the District of Columbia and the U S Virgin Islands have signed on to adopt the Common Core State Standards CCSS The need for curriculum guides to assist teachers in helping students meet these standards has become imperative Created by teachers for teachers the research based curriculum maps in this book present a comprehensive coherent sequence of thematic units for teaching the skills outlined in the CCSS for English language arts in Grades K-5 The maps address every standard in the CCSS yet are flexible and adaptable to accommodate diverse teaching styles Each grade is broken down into six units that include focus standards suggested works sample activities and assessments lesson plans and more Teachers can use the
