Ethiopia in Transit Pietro Toggia, Abebe Zegeye, 2013-10-18 The writings in this edition explore historical and contemporary issues in Ethiopia as the country underwent change and celebrated its new millennium However despite the recognizance of socio economic and political changes Ethiopia still faces enduring problems and challenges to its stability and continuity The political past haunts the country while it is facing the future with optimism and hope The contributors in this edition examine historical and contemporaneous issues with different lenses they investigate the multiplicity and complexity of the contradictions that define traditional and modern Ethiopia The contributions highlight the significance of the instability dislocation conflict and transformation inherent in any society None of these writings however celebrate the forces that create the conflict they are cautious not to glorify the present and romanticize the past On the contrary they seek to contextualize the challenges which the country faces with a view to open a dialogue not exclusively among Ethiopians but with scholars and social activists in the rest of Africa as well as the international community The contributions cover and examine such important topics as historiography political power and legitimacy ideology and radical views knowledge transmission and modernity emigration and the Ethiopian Diaspora ethnic and linguistic identity patriarchy and feminist discourses in a traditional society public policies and economic development traditional and modern art and culture and neo liberalism and globalization This book was published as a special issue of African Identities

Language Policy in Ethiopia Mekonnen Alemu Gebre Yohannes, 2021-02-18 This book examines the interplay and tensions between hegemonic and counter hegemonic language policy and processes in Tigray a regional state of Ethiopia in the period of pre and post 1991 Viewing language use and language policy as dynamic social and ideological processes the book presents Ethiopia as an example of language policy creation and implementation over time in a highly volatile political context The case of Ethiopia is unique in that different language policies and practices were put in place as the country's leaders changed through political takeovers Declared language policies were not always implemented and those implemented were often protested The book starts with an overview and review of language policy and planning followed by a chapter on the history of such planning in Ethiopia It then presents the methodology used for the study and examines the appropriation of hegemonic LPP patterns of resistance schools and public sites as centers of resistance and the emergence and development of specific patterns of language use in different regions of the country The book ends with recommendations for future research and draws the overall conclusion that since LPP is a dynamic and multilayered contextual process official or de facto language policy is often undermined by overt or covert unofficial language policies ideologies mechanisms and agents that result in different patterns of language use

Honour in African History John Iliffe, 2005 This is the first published account of the role played by ideas of honour in African history from the fourteenth century to the present day It argues that appreciation of these ideas is essential to an understanding of past and present African behaviour Before European conquest many African men cultivated heroic honour others admired the civic virtues of the patriarchal householder and women honoured one another for industry endurance and devotion to their families These values both conflicted and blended with Islamic and Christian teachings Colonial conquest fragmented heroic cultures but inherited ideas of honour found new expression in regimental loyalty respectability professionalism working class masculinity the changing gender relationships of the colonial order and the nationalist movements which overthrew that order Today the same inherited notions obstruct democracy inspire resistance to tyranny and motivate the defence of dignity in the face of AIDS
