two sets of grandparents who immigrated from Czechoslovakia taught her invaluable life lessons among its triumphs and setbacks Coal mining and farming coexisted as unlikely bedfellows in that part of the country but the author's father who dropped out of school to work in the mines ultimately came to live a hardscrabble but fulfilling life as a farmer dedicated to his undying belief that the land will feed you Edward Cermak's realized dream of providing for his family by living off the land came with a death sentence of Black Lung Disease from his years of breathing in coal dust He and wife Anna were married at the onset of the Great Depression a most challenging time and it is fair to say that they shared a prodigious workload and occasional hardship over several decades of farming and never regretted their journey together The greater the difficulties the harder they worked and the more they learned to adapt As for daughter Linda the baby and unexpected addition to the family joining a much older sister and brother her two decades on the farm were so special that she as sole survivor had to put it all into the words that comprise this book as she embarked into her seventies There are many stories from the exultant to the tragic told in these pages Linda takes you back in time through her memories and ultimately sharing the many truths that came to serve her well as a wife mother and grandmother Perhaps most fascinating is a way of life so reliant on and respectful of family and neighbors captured in this memoir You might even find yourself as did the author in her youth enjoying the antics of a pet groundhog or dealing with the meanest gobbler ever to walk the face of the earth It is a compilation of stories and maxims that can only be shared by a dwindling number of those among us who have experienced this rapidly disappearing way of life All proceeds from the sale of this book will be donated equally to the Dillonvale High School Alumni Association and to the community of East Palestine Ohio who suffered the tragic train derailment in 2023 in memory of Linda's Dad and Mom Ed and Anna Cermak About the author Linda Lee Cermak Kocan the youngest of three children is the second daughter and only surviving child of the late Edward and Anna Cermak of Dillonvale Ohio At 71 years of age Linda decided to take pencil to paper and record her experiences and lessons learned growing up on her small 150 acre family farm in Ohio's Jefferson County in the 1950s and 1960s Just jot down a few interesting stories in a notebook to tell her children and grandchildren about their roots and pass on some important life values she had learned during those years A vociferous reader Linda is not a formally trained writer but this memoir reveals a natural talent for writing about what is most important in life via an approach that is inviting gentle and authentically warm and loving She asks that you place your hand in hers as she takes you on a virtual journey back in time to her farm and a childhood replete with memories told in an unpretentious style that can be humorous charming and at times assertive and life affirming She promises that Harvesting Memories will inspire and inform you in ways you might find surprising Linda currently lives in the verdant countryside outside of Towanda Pennsylvania with Mark her husband of 52 plus years They live on a 22 acre piece of land which they share with deer various wild critters and their 17 year old cat Sydney

Myers, 2010-06 One Lucky Bastard A Memoir is a story inspired by an event that occurred in 1995 when my biological mother and I were reunited for the first time in 37 years I was born a bastard big deal not everyone enters the world through the eyes of Norman Rockwell The important thing was that I was adopted well My parents loved me and were excellent providers By age twelve however certain issues regarding my sexual orientation emerged During that period of chaos known as puberty I chose to hide behind a straight relationship for eight years until it tragically fell apart Little did I know but that was just the beginning of a series of extraordinary challenges including the death of my soul mate brought on by the onslaught of AIDS There was the murder of my Godchild's mother by her husband My father would die on the floor of a VA hospital and my mother would go on to develop Alzheimer's disease As the first thirty seven years of my life came its darkest point I found myself searching for my biological roots Fate gracefully stepped in and guided me towards the mother who was forced to give me away at birth and a reunion took place that changed two lives forever One Lucy Bastard A Memoir will appeal to anyone who has been involved in an adoption experience and to everyone who has struggled to find authenticity in their lives James B Myers lives in Los Angeles California

The Peace I Know Udochukwu Vincent Ogbuji, 2013-02 There is an ancient proverb that instructs Physician heal thyself It helps to keep this saying in mind as we seek to bring peace to others That is because our collective peace of mind makes for a beautiful life family and society and no one gives what he or she has not As a priest my endeavor to bring inner healing and peace to many comes with challenges among which includes maintaining my own personal tranquility Urged by my friends and wish to make a difference I decided to write this book after my car accident and resulting paralysis I hope that reading this book will inspire you to continue searching for peace and what makes life worth living      A Tale of Silence Ned Cole, 2019-11-07 This book is based on the true story of Jonathan Ned Cole a deaf adopted son of Mary Carol Cole and Ned M Cole Much of the story is factually about Jon s rather tragic life Some of the story about his biological parents are works of my imagination Jon never knew who his biological parents were Other parts are dramatized to better portray who Jon was a black deaf boy raised in an all white family The last chapter is about Jon s time in Heaven and of course is from my imagination Thinking of Jon being in Heaven helps me to deal with my grief over losing him The story is told in the first person as though Jon were narrating the story himself Some of what Jon tells you might make you laugh Other parts will cause your eyes to well up in tears As you listen to Jon tell his story you will discover that deafness is a far greater burden to carry than being a black person in mostly white America This story is one which with the author struggled for many years to find the words that would do justice to the extraordinary silence that Jon lived with during all of his short 26 years of life This story is about the joy of living and the grief a family feels when a child is lost to them far too early Yet this story in the end is about hope As Jon would have it his real father and mother make their home in Melbourne Florida
